

CHAPTER 11

INDEX

“Throughout history both men and women have fought for voting rights for all Americans. We must continue to fight to protect these rights for future generations.”

Senator Jeanie Riddle (R-10)

“Many articulate the 19th Amendment as a victory for women. I believe it is an even greater victory for the United States because it allowed our country to receive the benefit of knowledge, talent, leadership and opinion of half of our citizens who up to its passage, had been dismissed. Benjamin Franklin equated unused talent to a sundial in the shade. In this case, the sundial were the women of this great country and the 19th amendment removed the shade.”

Representative Brenda Shields (R-11)
