ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST AND ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY CIVIL PENALTIES AND COSTS SHOULD NOT BE IMPOSED

On November 9, 2010, the Enforcement Section of the Securities Division of the Office of Secretary of State (the "Enforcement Section"), through the Securities Division's Chief Enforcement Counsel, Nathan Soendker, submitted a Petition for Order to Cease and Desist and Order to Show Cause Why Civil Penalties and Costs Should Not Be Imposed. After reviewing the petition, the Commissioner issues the following findings of fact, conclusions of law and order:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Buraness Management, L.L.C. ("Buraness"), is a Missouri limited liability company organized on February 4, 2005. Buraness was organized by Isaac Williams ("Williams") and Latonia Roddy ("Roddy") for the purpose of engaging in the business of property management and has a last known address of 4579 Laclede Avenue, Suite 266, St. Louis, Missouri 63108.
2. Williams is an individual with a last known address of 700 Lenox Avenue, #3J, New York, New York 10039.
3. A check of the records maintained by the Missouri Commissioner of Securities on November 8, 2010, indicates that Williams has never been registered with the State of Missouri as a broker-dealer agent, investment adviser representative or issuer agent.
4. Roddy is a Missouri licensed insurance producer (#8042169) with a last known address of 2553 Westfall Lane, St. Louis, Missouri 63136. Roddy is a regional manager and registered agent for Buraness.
5. A check of the records maintained by the Missouri Commissioner of Securities on November 8, 2010, indicates that Roddy has never been registered with the State of Missouri as a broker-dealer agent, investment adviser representative or issuer agent.
6. For purposes of this order the term "Respondents" shall refer to Buraness, Williams and Roddy.
7. In 2006, a 30-year-old New York resident ("NYR1") employed with Bank of America became acquainted with Williams, who was a customer at the bank branch where NYR1 worked.
8. In December 2006, NYR1 moved from New York to Orlando, Florida. Around that same time, Williams solicited NYR1 with an investment opportunity that promised a fifteen percent (15%) rate of return within sixty (60) days.
9. On December 14, 2006, an "Investor Agreement" contemplating an investment in the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) was sent by Roddy via facsimile to NYR1. Roddy executed the agreement on behalf of Buraness. The agreement stated the investment funds would be used "towards 4159 Farlin Ave., St. Louis, Missouri 63115" and that funds would be paid back on February 14, 2007, with a fifteen percent (15%) rate of return.
10. On December 14, 2006, NYR1 sent via wire transfer the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) credited to Buraness' Bank of America account ending in 2727 (the "Buraness Bank Account").
11. During the course of its investigation, the Enforcement Section determined that NYR1 made an additional investment with Buraness on December 22, 2006, after being solicited by Williams. NYR1 initiated a wire transfer in the amount of six thousand dollars ($6,000.00) credited to the Buraness Bank Account. According to NYR1, this investment was to be used for cleanup of real estate properties and that funds would be paid back plus one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) in interest. There was no written agreement documenting the investment.

12. On January 3, 2007, NYR1 received a wire transfer from the Buraness Bank Account in the amount of seven thousand dollars ($7,000.00). NYR1 stated that this transfer represented the repayment of the six thousand dollar ($6,000.00) investment and the one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) in interest per the December 22, 2006, agreement.
13. On January 5, 2007, Williams solicited NYR1 for an additional investment of eight thousand two hundred dollars ($8,200.00). Under the terms of the offer, this investment, along with interest in the amount of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) was to be paid back within one (1) month.
14. On January 5, 2007, NYR1 initiated a wire transfer in the amount of eight thousand two hundred dollars ($8,200.00) credited to the Buraness Bank Account. There was no written agreement documenting the investment.
15. NYR1 received only two (2) one thousand dollar ($1,000.00) payments and one (1) two thousand dollar ($2,000.00) payment in the form of wire transfers from Buraness in connection with the January 5, 2007, investment. NYR1 has since made several attempts to contact Buraness regarding the remaining unpaid monies with no response.
16. On January 14, 2010, in a telephone interview with an investigator from the Enforcement Section, NYR1 stated that:
 - a. Williams did not disclose any possible risks to the investment;
 - b. Williams did not provide NYR1 with any financial statements or other information concerning Buraness's financial condition;
 - c. Williams did not provide NYR1 with any background information on the managers of Buraness; and
 - d. Williams did not tell NYR1 that the securities being offered were not registered or exempt from registration.
17. Another investor, a 39-year-old New York resident ("NYR2"), had been acquainted with Williams since 1989 and was contacted by Williams in October 2008, because Williams "needed an investor to help flip a property in St. Louis."
18. NYR2 met Williams at a restaurant where they rented a computer and accessed the Internet. Williams showed NYR2 a St. Louis, Missouri, property online and told NYR2 that the investment would generate a two thousand dollar ($2,000.00) profit in three (3) to four (4) months for an eight thousand dollar ($8,000.00) investment.
19. When NYR2 expressed a concern about the risk of the investment, Williams informed NYR2 that Williams "had done this many times with his other investors . . . and it was a success."
20. On October 31, 2008, NYR2 initiated a wire transfer in the amount of eight thousand dollars ($8,000.00) credited to the Buraness Bank Account. NYR2 understood that NYR2 was to receive documents regarding the investment the same week the funds were sent.
21. To date, NYR2 has not received documentation relating to the investment and has not received any return from Buraness.
22. On October 30, 2009, NYR2 contacted Buraness via email to inform Buraness of NYR2's problems with Williams and to ask for a return of NYR2's initial investment within 30 days.
23. On November 3, 2009, NYR2 sent a certified letter to Buraness, including a copy of the October 30, 2009, email, asking for resolution and return of the investment.
24. On December 1, 2009, NYR2 attempted to contact Buraness by leaving two voicemail messages, but, to date, NYR2 has not received a response.
25. On October 25, 2010, an investigator from the Enforcement Section contacted NYR2. NYR2 stated that, to date, NYR2 has not received the remainder of NYR2's investments or interest due.
26. On April 23, 2009, a check of the website www.buraness.com indicated Buraness Management was acting as a full-service property management company operating with the last known address of 4579 Laclede Avenue, Suite 266, St. Louis, Missouri 63108, with phone number 314-662-1686. On June 16, 2010, a check of the website www.buraness.com indicated the website expired.
27. On June 22, 2009, the Enforcement Section received bank records for the Buraness Bank Account for the period of January 1, 2006, to May 31, 2009. The account was indicated as "Business Economy Checking" with Roddy and Williams as signatories.
28. A review of the bank records revealed that there may have been approximately five (5) additional individuals residing in Missouri and New York that invested funds in Buraness.

29. A review of the bank records revealed Williams and Roddy spent Buraness funds on a variety of personal expenses, including but not limited to:
 - a. "Jamaican Treasures," private luxury villa rentals, with an approximate debit of one thousand six hundred dollars ($1,600.00);
 - b. "Last Minute Getaways," with an approximate debit of one thousand seven hundred fifty dollars ($1,750.00);
 - c. Monthly car payments to "American Honda Financial" by Roddy, with an approximate debit of four hundred eleven dollars ($411.00);
 - d. Hotels, such as Renaissance Hotels, Courtyard by Marriott, Townplace Suites, Residence Inns, Omni Hotels, Hotel Lumiere, and Four Seasons Hotel, with an approximate debit of three thousand nine hundred dollars ($3,900.00);
 - e. Airline ticketing, such as Priceline, United Air, Southwest Air, US Airways, and American Airlines, with an approximate debit of four thousand three hundred dollars ($4,300.00);
 - f. Car rentals, such as, Budget Rent-A-Car, Enterprise Rent-A-Car, and Avis Rent-A-Car, with an approximate debit of one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200.00);
 - g. Restaurants, such as Applebees, IHop, Longhorn, Bubba Gump, Dady Rock Cancun, Ohana Japanese Steakhouse, and The Drunken Fish, with an approximate debit of five thousand three hundred dollars ($5,300.00);
 - h. Clothing stores, such as Victoria's Secret, Burlington Coat Factory, Sears, Dillards, Banana Republic, The Gap, Bed, Bath and Beyond, Target, JC Penney, Eddie Bauer, New York & Company, Macy's, Finish Line, Kenneth Cole, and Polo-Ralph Lauren, with an approximate debit of five thousand two hundred dollars ($5,200.00); and
 - i. Miscellaneous transactions, such as, Tiffany & Co., Crystal Nails, New York City Parking fines, PetSmart Inc, with an approximate debit of one thousand three hundred fifty dollars ($1,350.00).
30. In addition, Williams and Roddy withdrew cash from the Buraness Bank Account, in some instances totaling over ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) per month. To date, the Enforcement Section has not been able to ascertain how the monies were spent.
31. Respondents did not inform NYR1 and NYR2 that investor funds would be used for the personal expenses of Williams and Roddy.
32. On March 16, 2009, the Enforcement Section requested information from Buraness, Williams, and Roddy by certified mail with a response due on April 15, 2009. On March 26, 2009, a signed certified mail receipt was returned to the Enforcement Section confirming delivery.
33. On April 16, 2009, the Enforcement Section received a letter dated April 10, 2009, from Buraness, signed "'Management' for Buraness Management/09." The letter stated that Buraness "is not disputing [NYR2's] claims in regards to [NYR2's] investment" and that NYR2 could expect repayments to begin in May 2009.
34. On June 2, 2009, the Enforcement Section requested additional information from Buraness and Williams by certified mail with a response due on June 16, 2009. On June 8, 2009, a signed certified mail receipt was returned to the Enforcement Section confirming delivery. No response was received.
