Know all men by these presents, that whereas a marriage was contemplated and agreed on between the undersigned Harbison Lysart, of Boone County, Mo. and Mrs. Amanda Beattie, of Boone County, Mo. and whereas each party is the owner of undivided and diverse articles of property, said Amanda Beattie being now the owner and possessor of a negro man named Madison, of black complexion aged about 31 years, a negro girl of black complexion named Mary, aged about 12 years, a bed, a table, a bedstead, and money and value for money loaned by her to the amount of Twenty four — & Eighty dollars & 100 dollars besides other property; and whereas it is agreed and intended between the parties hereto that the property of each shall not be affected by such marriage, but that each shall have the same and as full power and authority over all property now owned, or which may hereafter be acquired by them respectively now intended in consideration of said marriage; for the purpose of carrying out the intention aforesaid It is mutually covenanted and agreed between the parties aforesaid, that all property now owned or which may hereafter be acquired, acquired or purchased, gift, descent, devise or in whatever manner acquired or devised, shall be and remain her sole and sole, separate and independent property; and that said Lysart shall acquire no right, title or interest or right of control, whatever by or on account of such marriage to any such property; but that the same shall remain free from all claims, control, management or interest of said Lysart; and that she shall have and retain precisely the same, and as full, power and authority, in her own name and for her own use and benefit, to sell, dispose of, exchange and convey, by will or otherwise, all property now owned by her or which she may hereafter acquire as she would have had, had she remained sole and unmarried; and that she may dispose of the same by last will and testament and that in default of such last will and testament the same shall descend to and be distributed among those who would have been her heirs at law if such marriage had not been consummated. And it is further covenanted and agreed that said Amanda Beattie acquire no right whatever to the property or estate of said Lysart, present or future, by or on account of such marriage; but that said Lysart shall retain and have full authority to sell, convey, or devise any and all property, real or personal, which he now owns or may at any time hereafter own or be possessed of, free and unincumbered from all claim of said Beattie to have the same; and that this contract and the rights thereunder accruing to said Beattie are intended, and are hereby received by said Beattie, and expressed to be in lieu of, and in full discharge of, all her claims of dower in the real and personal estate of said Lysart. In testimony whereof said Lysart and Beattie have to it their hands and affix their seals

 Wade, of Boone County, Missouri, have agreed to intermarry with each other, and whereas each of them is now the owner of certain property, which of Lucy is intended shall be reserved to each party respectively unaffected by such marriage, except as herein stated - Now in consideration of such marriage and in order to carry out the intention aforesaid It is mutually agreed between the parties hereto that all property now owned or possessed by either party, shall be and remain the sole separate and absolute property of such party, free from all rights, title, claim, use or control of the other party - and that each party, shall have, enjoy exchange, dispose of and convey, by deed, last or otherwise, all property now owned by either may hereafter be acquired by either party, free from all claims of the other party, as though each has remained sole and unmarried - and in the event of the death of either party, the property owned by such party, shall descend to and be distributed among the heirs of such party, or according to law, without regard to such marriage. It is further agreed and covenanted that should Lucy survive said Matthew, she is to have full and entire possession, during her natural life, of the mansion house and stables of said Matthew and of the lots enclosing the same - and that this shall be in full discharge of all her claims of dower in the estate of said Sims. And it is further covenanted that said Lucy shall be supported by said Sims during the coexistence - and that whatever interest may be received by said Lucy on money loaned out by her, shall be applied, at her own discretion & according to her own judgment, to the use of herself & said Sims.
