Said curator further represents and shews to the court that the only other property, money, effects or credits in his hands belonging to the said wards consists of two several notes, given by S. S. Brodbeck the father of said minors to said minors, and his daughter, Anna Pearl Brodbeck, now deceased, and his son Walter Brodbeck, both of said

notes dated Nov. 30th 1905. and made payable on demand to the said payee therein, or order, and both drawing interest from date at the rate of 8% per annum. Payable annually and if not so paid or when due the said interest to become as principal and bear the same rate of interest, one of said notes being for the sum of $200⁰⁰ and the other for the principal sum of $648⁰⁰

Said Curator further represents and shows to the Court that the lands above described were the property of and owned by one Marguis Gumm. who died seized and possessed of the said lands, on the 8th day of March 1903, in Harrison County Missouri, leaving surviving him his widow, Martha Gumm, and Amanda Buck, Jennie Danley Susan Bartlett - Howard Gumm - John Gumm - Frank Gumm, and Harvey Gumm, his children, and the above named Alna Pearl Brodbeck, Mabel Gay Brodbeck, Ruth Brodbeck, Russell Mark Brodbeck, Blanch Luoma Brodbeck and Martha Elizabeth Brodbeck - minors - And Walter Brodbeck, now of age his grand children, who are the children of his deceased daughter, Tillie Brodbeck, who intermarried with one D. D. Brodbeck. That the said Martha Gumm, has since the death of her said husband, duly elected according to law, to take a child's part of the real estate of her said husband, thus making the parts into which the said land, and the estate of the said Marguis Gumm, is divided to be nine. That since the filing of the former petition for the sale of land in this estate at the November term 1905 of this Court, and before the filing of the appraisement in that regard, and before the report or approval of any sale under the order of sale made at said November term 1905, the said Alna Pearl Brodbeck has departed this life, to-wit: on the 16th day of February 1906, and the undivided one seventh of the undivided one ninth interest in the real estate above described inherited by her from her said Grand Father, has descended to her said father, D. D. Brodbeck, and her brothers and sisters Walter Brodbeck, Mabel Gay Brodbeck, Ruth Brodbeck, Russell Mark Brodbeck, Blanch Luoma Brodbeck, and Martha Elizabeth Brodbeck - Thus changing the ownership of the said undivided one seventh of the undivided one ninth interest in the said land and increasing the interest of the surviving children of the said Tillie Brodbeck in the said land. That as appears from the above recital of facts, the interest of the above surviving minors in the said land is a small fraction thereof, and is situated at an inconvenient distance from their residence, and that if said curator, from which a small income will be derived, and the cost and expense of renting, looking after, caring for, and keeping in repair the said property, will be great as compared with the revenue and income to be derived therefrom. And that because of the smallness of their interest therein, they will have no controul over said land, that an opportunity now exists to sell said land for a good price, and that if sold, and the proceeds arising from such sale be loaned it will result in a greater income, and the estate can be managed at less expense than now, and that the estate of said minors would be benefitted by the sale of their interest in said land, and the reinvestment of the proceeds of such sale as aforesaid.

Wherefore said curator prays the court to direct the said curator by its order, to sell the undivided interest of said minors (it being the undivided $\frac{4}{8}$ of $\frac{1}{4}$ thereof) in said land at either public or private sale, for cash in hand; and that the proceeds arising therefrom be invested as to the court may seem most advantageous to the estate of said minors.

And the court having heard the petition of said curator, and the evidence in relation thereto, and carefully considered the same, is satisfied that said order should be granted. It is therefore ordered by the court that said curator be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to sell the said real estate, at either public or private sale (first having had the same appraised according to law) for not less than three fourths of the appraised value thereof on the following terms to-wit: Cash in hand; And that said curator report said sale to this court at the next term thereof.
