In the matter of the estate of

Lewis B. Gillihan, Administrator.

Petition for Sale of Bank Stock.

Comes now Lewis B. Gillihan, Administrator of the estate of John E. Jenkins deceased, and represents to the Court that at the time of his death the said John E. Jenkins was the owner of ten shares of the capital stock of the Farmers Bank of Jameson, Missouri, of the par value of one hundred dollars per share, making a total par value of One Thousand ($1000) Dollars covered by stock certificate No. 22 of said bank, issued to and in the name of Edward E. Jenkins on the 5th day of July 1911; that on the 15th day of December 1919, the said John E. Jenkins borrowed from the Farmers Exchange Bank of Gallatin, Missouri, Fifteen Hundred sixty dollars and fifty cents ($1560.50) and gave a collateral note signed by himself and Etta Jenkins and transferred and assigned to the Farmers Exchange Bank as collateral security for said note said certificate No. 22 for ten shares of the capital stock of the Farmers Bank of Jameson and delivered said certificate together with the note secured thereby to the Farmers Exchange Bank. A copy of said note is hereto attached and made a part of this petition. That by reason of the assignment of said stock certificate as collateral security for said note the full amount of said note is a lien and charge thereon. And your petitioner further says that said John E. Jenkins was also the owner of four shares of the capital stock of the Farmers Bank of Jameson, Missouri, evidenced by stock certificate No. 38 issued in the name of C.A. Feurt; that said shares are of the par value of one hundred dollars each and that the total par value of said shares is Four Hundred ($400.00) Dollars; that on the first day of July 1909 said stock was assigned in blank and delivered to John E. Jenkins who on that day borrowed from T.A. Feurt the sum of Three hundred and fifty ($350.00) Dollars for which he gave a note payable to the order of T.A. Feurt for the sum of $350.00 bearing eight per cent interest from date and assigned and delivered into the possession of T.A. Feurt the said stock certificate No. 38 for the said four shares of the capital stock of said Farmers Bank of Jameson and that said bank stock is held as collateral security for the payment of said note and is first liable therefor, the said note being a lien and charge on said bank-stock.

By reason of the premises your petitioner says that the stock certificate No. 22 for ten shares of the capital stock of said bank held by the Farmers Exchange Bank and stock certificate No. 38 for four shares of the capital stock of said bank held by T.A. Feurt, as collateral security for the two notes above described respectively should be sold and out of the proceeds arising from the sale of said stock certificate No. 22 should first be paid the note of $1560.50 to the Farmers Exchange Bank, and out of the proceeds of the sale of said stock certificate No. 38 for four shares of the capital stock of said bank should first be paid said note of $350.00 to Thomas A. Feurt and the balance remaining after the payment of the costs of sale should remain in the hands of this administrator as assets of the estate for other creditors.

Wherefore this administrator prays an order of the Court to sell said bank-stock certificates and pay said notes respectively and such other orders as to the Court may appear proper and just in the premises.

Order for Sale of Bank Stock.

Comes now Lewis B. Gillihan, Administrator of the estate of John E. Jenkins, deceased, and presents his petition praying for an order for the sale of two several certificates of the capital stock of the Farmers Bank of Jameson, to-wit: One certificate No. 22 for ten shares and one certificate No. 38 for four shares of the capital stock of said bank, which petition is taken up and considered by the Court and the evidence thereon heard and the Court finds from the evidence that certificate No. 22 calling for ten shares of the capital stock of said Farmers Bank of Jameson was issued to and held and owned by Edward Jenkins; that on December 15th 1919, said Edward Jenkins borrowed from the Farmers Exchange Bank of Gallatin, Missouri, $1560.50 and gave his note therefor secured by said bank stock assigned as collateral; that said bank has a first lien on said bank stock and is entitled to be paid in full out of the proceeds of the sale thereof.

And the Court further finds that certificate No. 38 for four shares of the capital stock of said Farmers Bank was issued to C.A. Feurt, who assigned the same in blank and delivered the same to Edward Jenkins; that on July 1st, 1919 said Edward Jenkins borrowed from T.A. Feurt the sum of $350.00 and gave his note therefor and surrendered and delivered said said stock to said Feurt as collateral security for said note, and that said note is a first lien on said stock and should be first paid out of the proceeds of the sale of said bank stock. And the Court further finds that said bank stock and all thereof should be sold and the proceeds arising from the sale of said respective certificates should be applied in payment of the respective notes they secure.

It is therefore ordered and directed by the Court that said Administrator sell at public sale at the South door of the Court House in Gallatin, after giving ten days notice of the time, terms and place of sale by not less than five written or type-written hand bills posted in five public places in Daviess County, Missouri, the said stock certificate No. 22 for ten shares of the capital stock of said Farmers Bank of Jameson to the highest bidder for cash and cause said stock to be transferred to the purchaser thereof and out of the proceeds arising from the sale thereof to pay said note of $1560.50 and all the interest thereon, if the proceeds of the sale of said stock be sufficient therefor.

In the Probate Court, Daviess County, Missouri, August adjourned term 1920, October 1st, 1920.

And it is further ordered by the Court that said certificate No. 38 for four shares of the capital stock of said Farmers Bank of Jameson, be, also, likewise at the same time and in the same manner sold to the highest bidder for cash and that out of the proceeds arising from the sale thereof said note of $350.00 and the interest thereon and the attorneys fees provided therein be paid in full to the said T.A. Feurt, or his assigns, if sufficient therefor. And it is further ordered that should there remain any excess not required for the payment of said notes arising from the sale of said bank stock then such excess shall be included in the general funds of the estate of Edward Jenkins deceased, in the hands of the Administrator for further administration.

Edward Jenkins, deceased.)

Comes now Homer Feurt, surviving partner, and administrator of the partnership estate of Homer Feurt and John Edward Jenkins, dec'd, and represents to the Court that said John Edward Jenkins, the deceased partner of the partnership estate of John Edward Jenkins, deceased and Homer Feurt, died at Daviess County, Missouri, on April 18th, 1920, and that your petitioner is the duly appointed, qualified and acting administrator of said partnership estate. That the only property of said partnership is three shares of the capital stock of The Farmers Bank, of Jameson, Missouri, of the par value of one hundred dollars for each share; that said three shares of said capital stock are evidenced by stock certificate No. 48 issued by the Farmers Bank of Jameson, Missouri, to Homer Feurt and Edward Jenkins on November 21st, 1917 under the corporate seal of said bank signed by T.A. Feurt, President and Edward Jenkins as Secretary; that on May 23rd, 1919, said Edward Jenkins borrowed from the Farmers Exchange Bank of Gallatin, Missouri, the sum of One hundred and fifty dollars and gave his promissory note also signed by Etta Jenkins for the money so borrowed, and for the purpose of securing the payment of said note assigned and transferred to said bank his undivided interest in the three shares of the capital stock of the Farmers Bank at Jameson and delivered said stock certificate so assigned to the said Farmers Exchange Bank as collateral security for said note. And your petitioner says that he as the surviving partner is the absolute owner of one half of said three shares, which is unencumbered; that the remaining half of said three shares belonging to and owned by said Edward Jenkins, deceased, assigned to said Farmers Exchange Bank as collateral security as aforesaid, is liable for the payment of said note and the expenses of this administration.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays an order of this Court that said three shares of the capital stock of the Farmers Bank of Jameson evidenced by said certificate No. 48 be sold; that the portion thereof to-wit, one half belonging to your petitioner as surviving partner, be paid to him; that out of the remaining half belonging to said Edward Jenkins the note of One hundred and fifty dollars and interest to the Farmers Exchange Bank, be first paid in full and the costs of this administration paid out of the balance of said fund, and the balance remaining, if any, be turned over to the Administrator of the estate of Edward Jenkins, deceased.

Wherefore your petitioner prays an order of this Court directing her to appropriate a sum not exceeding Fifty Dollars to defray the expense of an investigation, and further that she be authorized, directed and empowered to enter into a contingency contract with such attorneys as she may employ satisfactory to this Court to take charge of the claim of her said ward against the heirs of Samuel McClung deceased, prosecute the same by suit, settlement, compromise or otherwise and out of the amount recovered, if anything, pay first the expenses incurred by either party and divide the balance equally, one half to such attorney as compensation for legal services rendered by them and the other half to be paid into the estate of your said petitioner's said ward.
