ORDER NO TAX DUE; NO APPRAISER APPOINTED

In the Matter of the Estate of Brice Gotshall, Deceased.

Now on this day, the Court does take up for hearing the matter of the appointment of an appraiser in the above estate to appraise and fix the clear market value of any property, estate, interest therein, or income therefrom, transfer of which is subject to the payment of an inheritance tax under the provisions of the Transfer and Inheritance Tax Laws of the State of Missouri.

The evidence having been heard, and the inventory and appraisement in said estate, and all papers and records in the office of the Court pertaining to such matter having been examined, and it further appearing that the decedent made no transfer of any property, by deed, grant, bargain, sale, gift, or in any other manner, in contemplation of death or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after the death of said decedent, the Court finds that the clear market value of all the property of said estate transfer of which is subject to the tax imposed by the Transfer and Inheritance Tax Laws of the State of Missouri, aggregates $ None personalty and $2600.00 real estate; total, $2600.00.

That the decedent died testate on the 7th., day of May, 1923; that the persons entitled to the distribution of said estate are:

Name and Address of Beneficiary.	Relation-ship.	Real Estate.	Personal Property.	Annuities, life Estates and Terms of years.	Total Value Interest of Each.	Amount legal Exemption of each.
Arabella Gotshall, Pattonsburg, Missouri.	Wife	2600.00	None	63 years	2600.00	20,000.00

That after deducting the costs of administration and debts probated against said estate, there does not remain net assets of said estate to be transferred to said beneficiaries more than the sum to which said beneficiaries are entitled as exemptions.

Wherefore, the Court, in view of the premises, finds that there is no tax due the State of Missouri under the Transfer and Inheritance Tax Laws thereof, by reason of any property, estate, interest therein, or income therefrom, in said estate, and that there is no necessity no such appraiser be appointed.

It is further ordered and adjudged that there be taxed against said estate the sum of five dollars, probate fees accrued in this proceeding, which sum Arabella Gotshall, Executrix of said estate, is ordered to pay out of any money on hand.

Supplemental
ORDER ASSESSING TRANSFER AND INHERITANCE TAX; AND APPROVING ALLOWANCE TO APPRAISER AND OTHER COSTS.

In the Matter of the Estate of Alexander H. Warren, Deceased.

Now on this day, the Court does take up for hearing the matter of the appointment of an appraiser in the above estate to appraise and fix the clear market value of any property, estate, interest therein, or income therefrom, transfer of which is subject to the payment of an inheritance tax under the provisions of the Transfer and Inheritance Tax Laws of the State of Missouri.

The evidence having been heard, and the inventory and appraisement in said estate, and all papers and records in the office of the Court pertaining to such matter having been examined, and it further appearing that the decedent made no transfer of any property, by deed, grant, bargain, sale, gift, or in any other manner, in contemplation of death or intended to take effect in prssession or enjoyment at or after death of said decedent, the Court finds that the clear market value of all the property of said estate, transfer of which is subject to the tax imposed by the Transfer and Inheritance Tax Laws of the State of Missouri, aggregates, $ 2058.47 personalty and $3500.00 real estate; total, $5558.47.

That the decedent died intestate on the 7, day of February, 1923; that the persons entitled to the distribriton of said estate are:

Name and Address of Beneficiary.	Relation-ship.	Real Estate.	Personal Property.	Annuities life Estates and Terms of years.	Total Val. int. of Each.	Amt. Leg. Exempt. of Each.	Val. sub. of to tax.	Amt. of Tax.

Due State Treasurer					$49.77

That after deducting the costs of administration and debts probated against said estate, there does not remain net assets for said estate to be transferred to said beneficiaries more than the sum to which said beneficiaries are entitled as exemptions.

Wherefore, the Court, in view of the premises, finds that there is no tax due the State of Missouri under the Transfer and Inheritance Tax Laws thereof, by reason of the transfer of any property, estate, int-erest therein, or income therefrom, in said estate, and there is no necessity of appointing an appraiser to appraise and fix the value of any property of said estate, and it is ordered no such appraiser be appointed.

Warren, administratrix of the said estate, before making her final settlement, pay to the said Appraiser the said sum of $8.58, and said probate fees of $6.10, also pay the Treasurer of the State of Missouri, when due, the aforesaid tax, so assessed; provided there is sufficient money in her hands belonging to said persons so taxed, or that may have been advanced by them to her, with which to pay their respective shares of said taxes and of said costs; and if she has not such amount on hand, then she is ordered to pay the same out of the proceeds of the sale of any property that may hereafter be sold by this Court to raise funds to make such payment.
