Which request is not taken up and considered by the Court and the Court having carefully examined said settlement and all previous settlements made by said guardian and curator as well, finds that the first three items with which said guardian and Curator stands charged in his first settlement aggregating $1141.35 belongs equally to all three of said wards; that the forth item with which said Guardian and Curator stands charged in said first settlement, being $2308.64 received from the C. R. I. & Ry. Company for personal injuries to Leonadis Youtsey, less the sum of $100.00 on account for expenses for which credit was taken on said first settlement leaving a net amount on said item of $2208.64 (plus the interest on a part of said money which is loaned on real estate) belongs exclusively to Leonadis Youtsey, and neither Beatrice Youtsey or John William Youtsey have any interest therein.

And the Court further finds that the item of $7669.42 with which said Guardian and Curator stands charged in his second annual settlement belongs equally to the said Leonadis Youtsey, Beatrice Youtsey and John William Youtsey; the items of Expense charged in said Second Annual settlement of $33.60 Probate Fees, $500.00 for compensation to the Guardian and Curator and $200.00 Attorneys fees are properly chargeable to the entire estate.

And the Court further finds that after credit for such proper expense is taken there remains a balance for distribution of $10,211.61; that of said sum the said Leonadis Youtsey is entitled to $2208.64 on his own account for the amount received for his personal injuries; that he is also entitled to one-third of the remainder, to-wit; $2667.65 making a total of $4876.29 (Plus interest on a part of same money which is loaned on real estate) of said fund belonging to said Leonadis Youtsey; that Beatrice Youtsey is entitled to one-third of said balance (said balance being $8002.97) which amounts to $2667.65 and John William Youtsey is entitled to one-third of said balance, which amounts to $2667.65.

And it further appears to the Court and the Court further finds that owing to the age, sex and physical condition of said wards their expenses and needs will be different; that a separate account should be kept for each of said wards and that hereafter separate settlements of their several accounts should be made.

It is therefore ordered by the Court that said accounts be separate; that said Guardian and Curator charged himself with said sum of $4876.29 (plus interest on a part of same) on account of said Leonadis Youtsey, and with the sum of $2667.65 (plus interest on part of same) each on account of said Beatrice and John William Youtsey; that their accounts be kept separately and that hereafter separate settlements shall be made thereof.

estates of Ulysses M. Melvin, Deceased.)

Now at this day comes Ella Razy, Guardian of the persons and Curator of the estates of said Ruth Melvin, a minor, and states to the Court that the settlements heretofore filed in this court by the said Ulysses M. Melvin, as Curator of the estate of said Ruth Melvin and Eugene Melvin, are incorrect, false and fraudulent; that in the first settlement in the matter of the estate of said minors made by said Ulysses M. Melvin, as Curator of said estates, he credited himself in such settlement with the sum of $250.00 by amount ordered for one year's support, while in truth and fact said Curator did not pay out or expend any sum whatever for the support care or maintenance of said minors, or either of them; that said credit was included in and put into said settlement for the express purpose on the part of the said Ulysses M. Melvin, of cheating and defrauding said minors out of said sum of $250.00; that said Ulysses H. Melvin in said first settlement credited himself with the sum of $75.00 as an error in inventory, while no such error was shown and no such error existed in such inventory; that such credit of $75.00 in said settlement was false and fraudulent and was made for the purpose of cheating and defrauding said minors out of said sum of $75.00; that in his second settlement filed in the matter of said estates, the said Ulysses M. Melvin credited himself with the sum of $250.00 by one years support, for the purpose of cheating and defrauding said minors out of said sum of $250.00; that in truth and fact Curator did not expend, or pay out any sum whatever for the support or care of said minors. That in his third settlement in the matter of the said estate, the said Ulysses M. Melvin falsely and fraudulently credited himself with the sum of $250.00 on account of amount ordered one years support, for the purpose of cheating and defrauding said minors, while in truth and fact the said Ulysses M. Melvin as such curator, or other-wise, did not expend any sum whatever for the support, care or maintenance of said minors, or either of them.

That in his fourth settlement the said Ulysses M. Melvin as curator of said estate falsely and fraudulently credited himself with the sum of $250.00 by amount ordered one years support, while in truth and in fact said Curator did not pay out or expend any sum whatever for the support, care and maintenance of said minors; that in the final settlement made herein in the matter of the said estate of such minors, by the said Ulysses M. Melvin by Cleo Melvin, administrator of the estate of the said Ulysses M. Melvin deceased, is incorrect in that, the credits aforesaid in the first, second, third and fourth settlement have carried forward and included in such final settlement; that by reason of such settlement being false and fraudulent as aforesaid, the estate of said minors has been depleted, reduced cheated and defrauded out of and in the sum of $1075.00. That in said final settlement by the said Cleo Melvin, he has credited himself and charged the estate of said minors, with the sum of $60.00; that on account of the fraud and malfeasance of the said Ulysses M. Melvin as such Curator and his breach of trust in the matter of said estates, such Curator should not be allowed any compensation of fees for his services as such.

WHEREFORE, the undersigned as Curator of the estates of said Ruth Melvin as aforesaid, prays the court that the final settlement on account of the said Ulysses M. Melvin, Curator of the estates of said minors by Cleo Melvin, administrator of the estate of the said Ulysses M. Melvin be not approved or confirmed, but, that the same be dis-allowed, rejected and held for naught, and that such administrator be cited by this court and compelled to make a true and just settlement of the accounts of said minors and of their affairs in conformity with the facts above stated, and that from said first settlement there be stricken therefrom, said credits of $250.00, and $75.00 as above mentioned, and that the balance as shown due said minors be increased from the sum of $1498.57 to the sum of $1823.57; that from said second settlement there be stricken from and taken out there of said false and fraudulent credit of $250.00 shown therein; and that the said balance of said second settlement be increased from the sum of $1,282.72 as shown by said settlement to the sum of $1857.72; that from said third settlement there be stricken therefrom and cancelled said false and fraudulent credit of $250.00 and that said balance as shown by said third settlement be increased from the sum of $1066.07 to the sum of $1891.07 the amount due and owing said minors by said Curator or said third settlement; that from said fourth settlement such false and fraudulent credits of $250.00 allowed therein should be stricken therefrom and that the said balance due said minors on said fourth settlement should be increased from the sum of $849.42 to the sum of $1924.42 the amount due and owing to said minors by such curator on said fourth settlement, that said final settlement made for the said Ulysses M. Melvin by Cleo Melvin, administrator, of his estate, be stricken therefrom such credit of $60.00 on account of Curator's fees, that is $30.00 from the account of said Curator in the matter of the estates of each of said minors; that the balance shown due said Ruth Melvin by said final settlement should be increased from the sum of $476.03 to the sum of $1043.53, the correct amount due and owing to the estates of said Ruth Melvin by the estate of the said Ulysses M. That all of said settlements hereinbefore made by the Curator of said estates, and by the said administrator on account of the frauds and false credit therein, and the errors and mistakes as hereinbefore set out, be set aside and be held for naught and that the court requires said Cleo Melvin as administrator of the estate of Ulysses M.
