Now at this day, come James L. Barton and Georgia A. All of the Southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section Twenty-nine (29), except a tract of land described as follows: Beginning at the southwest corner of the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of said section Twenty-nine (29), running thence east 16 rods, thence north 30 rods, thence west 16 rods and thence south 30 rods to the place of beginning, containing three (3) acres, more or less; also the west eight (8) acres of the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of Section Twenty-eight (28), all in Township Fifty-nine (59) of Range Twenty-six (26), containing Forty-five (45) acres, more or less.

And the court having fully examined said petition and having fully examined said petition and having heard the evidence adduced by the petitioners aforesaid, and after having fully considered all of the same, doth find, that the allegation contained in said petition are true; that one Asa Lindsey, died in Daviess County, Missouri, on the day of May, 1923, testate, the owner of in fee simple and seized and possessed of said real estate hereinbefore described; that the said Asa Lindsey left his last will and testament, which will has been duly proved and admitted to Probate, and by this Court established and declared by proper judgment made and entered of record to be the last will and testament of the said Asa Lindsey, deceased.

That G. D. Harris, was in and by said will appointed executor thereof, and after the establishment of the will as aforesaid, the said G. D. Harris, was by this court, appointed executor of such will and letters testamentary granted to the said G. D. Harris by said Court, to administer on the estate of the said deceased, and to carry out of the terms and provisions thereof. That such executor after his said appointment caused notice of such appointment to be made as required by law by publication in the Jamesport Gazette, a newspaper printed and published in Daviess County, Missouri, that in the administration of said estate it appeared to the said executor that there was not sufficient personal property or estate to pay the debts of said estate and legacies set forth in said will; thereupon said G. D. Harris executor of said will, presented to this Court his petition praying this court for an order to sell the above described real estate for the purpose of paying the debts against said estate and the legatees as provided in said will and testament.

Whereupon this court caused notice to be given of the presentation of such petition to the court, by publication as required by law, which publication was made for four weeks, in said Jamesport Gazette, and personal service of such publication to be served upon James E. Lindsey, the only heir or devisee of said Asa Lindsey, deceased, residing in Daviess County, Missouri.

And thereafter on the February Term, 1924, this court under and pursuant to said petition and publication, made and entered of record and order for said executor to have said land appraised to sell the same at private sale, for cash in hand, the court having found form testimony produced in regard to such petition and publication for the sale of said real estate that the personal estate of the deceased, in the hands of said executor and the legatees thereof, and that it would be for the best interest of said estate that the real estate described in said petition for sale, and order of publication and hereinbefore described in said petition for sale, and order of publication hereinbefore described, be sold as prayed for in said petition, and the said executor was ordered and directed to first have said real estate appraised according to law.

That said executor acting under and in obedience to said order of sale, did have said real estate appraised by George B. Koch, George E. Spivey and F. R. Brown, three disinterested householders of Daviess County, Missouri, who appraised said real estate to be of the value of Four Thousand Dollars, and still acting under and in obedience to said order of sale, said executor did, on the 12th., day of May, 1924, sell said real estate to petitioners herein, James L. Barton and Georgia A. Barton, for the sum of Four Thousand Dollars, in cash, and the said James L. Barton and Georgia A. Barton paid to said executor the said sum of Four Thousand Dollars, the purchase price of the real estate aforesaid, all of which actions, sale and the payment of the purchase price of said real estate, the appraisal of such real estate under said order of sale were reported by report of sale, as required by law to said Probate Court, by said executor, which report after having remained on file in said Court for more than ten days was by said Court confirmed and approved by an order made and entered of record therein, on the 26th., day of May, 1924. And that said executor ordered to execute, acknowledge and deliver to said James L. Barton and Georgia A. Barton, a deed in due form of law, conveying to the said James L. Barton and Georgia A. Barton and their heirs and assigns all the right, title and interest which the deceased had in the real estate at the time of his death.

And the court further finds that the said G. D. Harris, after such order confirming said sale, made final settlement of his administration of said estate, and has been finally discharged by the court as such executor. And the Court further finds that said G. D. Harris, or any successor to him, as such executor or otherwise, never made the deed containing the recitations, and as required by law conveying said real estate to the purchasers thereof, as aforesaid. And the Court is fully satisfied from the testimony and the evidence adduced therein, the said James L. Barton, and Georgia A. Barton, and that said purchaser have never sold, transferred or assigned by any right, title or interest acquired by them under such sale to them.

Wherefore, the Court doth hereby order and direct that B. B. Houghton, Sheriff of said county of Daviess, in the State of Missouri, execute and acknowledge to such purchasers the said James L.
