Second. That if present, the said witness Cleo Fleming would testify as follows, that he had known the defendant for his earliest boy-hood; had visited the house often for the last fifteen years; associated with the family during all that time; worked at said home of Mary E. Snider, during the lifetime of her husband and after his death worked on the said farm for Mary E. Snider; stayed all night at the house and had eaten at the table many times during the last fifteen years; that during the fall of 1924 this witness worked for John Snider in the gathering of his corn and that Mary E. Snider lived with the said John Snider; during said time; that he was in the Snider home, at that time, for more than a week; that the defendant Mary E. Snider dooked all the meals, made the beds and don the house work; that the beds were clean and comfortable and that the meals were good and substantial; that he conversed with the defendant at meals times, after supper each day, visited with her, discussed the current events and talked with her generally; that during all the time that he has known her since his boy-hood he has seen no evidence of any mental infirmity; that she seemed in good health, except for her rheumatism, both mentally and physically and that she seemed contented, comfortable and happy. This witness testified to two former trials to about the same set of facts and that to his best recollection this defendant was mentally and physically normal, except that she was afflicted somewhat with rheumatism, and that in the opinion of this witness she was a normal, sound woman in the mind and body for a woman of her age, and that he will further testify that he sees no change in her mental condition from the time he first knew her up to the present time. That there is no other person whose evidence or attendance that we could have procured in this term by whome we could prove, or so fully prove the same facts set out above; that such witness is not absent by the connivance, consent or procurement of the defendant and such application is not made for vexation and delay, but in good faith, for the purpose of obtaining a fair and impartial trial and for the reason that the defendant says that she can not safely go to trial without the evidence of the above named witness.

In the Matter of the Estate) Petition for the Private Sale of Personal Property.
of Francis M. Doty, Deceased)

Homer Feurt, Administrator with Will annexed on the estate of Francis M. Doty, deceased, comes and prays the honorable the Judge of Probate Court of said County to order a sale of the personal property of the said Francis M. Doty, deceased, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to pay the debts of said deceased, and state to the Court that the Personal Estate of the deceased consists of: Davenport, tow chairs, six chairs, side board, stove, couch, 3 rocking chairs, commode, cook case, piano, rug, bed, rug, inside toilet, rocker, and chair, dresser, bowl and pitcher, lamp, small bed, refrigerator, kitchen cabinet, cook stove, oilstove, table, safe, table, dishes, coal bucket, stove vessels, coal, saw, fork and sowl and shovel, ladder, washing machine and lawn mower, rug, augher hos and rake and ladder, lot can fruit, And the one half interest in the following:
five stacks of hay, nine heifers, bull calf, Jersey calf, four two year old heifers, Two red heifers, fifteen cows, one red and one roan heifer, Bay mare, black mare, black mare, grey mare, 158 posts, one hundred bushels corn, boar, five sows, sow and eight pigs, cow and calf, bull sow and 5 pigs, sow and 2 pigs, seven shoats, 29 shoats, 24 posts, 5 stacks of hay, 200 bu., dorn, 65 bu., oats, wheat, 5bu seed corn, hay in barn, 25 supers, 2Bbl., feed, 2 Grey mares, 75 bushell corn, 1 bu., seed corn, 100 bu., oats, 25 stands of bees, 300 chickens, and etc.,

All of which will more fully appear by the appraisement thereof now on file in this Court. Petitioner states that owing to the character of said described Personal Property he thinks it would be to the interest of said Estate to sell the same at private sale. First because said property is perishable, and is liable to depreciate in value, or be destroyed or lost. Second Because said personal Property will bring a better price at private sale, then at public sale. Third, Because the cost of private sale of said Personal Property will be less than the cost of a public sale thereof, by saving the costs of advertising, by saving the hire of an auctioneer, by saving the hire of a clerk of sale and the costs of qualifying, etc. Fourth, Because the proceeds of the sale of said Personal Estate is necessary to pay decedent's debts. Fifth, Because further that said property if not required to pay the debts of decedent cannot be divided in kind among the heirs of decedent.

Petitioner further states that he thinks said estate will be greatly benefitted by selling said described property for cash in hand, the purchaser giving bond with at least two good securities and bearing interest from the day of sale at ---- per cent per annum.

Petitioner therefore recommends the sale of said described personal property of decedent and prays an order authorizing him to sell the same for cash in hand, or on a credit not to exceed _____ months, take such bonds for any deferred payment as the Court may order.
