Katherine Porterfield, Guardian and
Curator. }

Now comes Katherine Porterfield and represents to the Court that she is the duly appointed, qualified and acting Guardian and Curator of the persons and estates of Dorthy Porterfield and Byron Porterfield, minors; that as such there came into her hands the sum of Twenty Thousand Dollars, arising from Life insurance upon the life of the father of said minors, payable to them; that under the advise, counsel and direction and with the knowledge of the Probate Court said fund was placed in the hands of the Farmers Exchange Bank of Gallatin, Missouri, in trust, to be invested solely in first mortgages on real estate securities as required by law and not otherwise; that instead of investing said money in the class of securities required said bank in violation of its trust invested the same in worthless securities of its own; that on the 4th day of March, 1926, said Farmers Exchange bank failed; that it has become necessary to bring suit to recover said trust fund and to establish a preference therefor; that this petitioner on behalf of said minors has just cause of action to recover said money, but that said minors have no other estate, have no means with which to employ counsel to prosecute a claim for preference on account of said fund, and that unless your petitioner is permitted and authorized to employ counsel on a contingency basis said claim cannot be prosecuted. Your petitioner further states that she has made a tentative arrangement and agreement to employ as attorneys to prosecute said claim, subject to the approval and ratification of this Court, Nat G. Cruzen and Dudley & Brandom, attorneys at law, of Gallatin, Missouri, who are willing to undertake the recovery of said trust fund and who have already rendered valuable legal services in that behalf upon a contingency contract, they to receive forty per cent and said minors to receive Sixty per cent, after the other costs and expenses of such recovery be paid.

And your petitioner represents to the Court that it is for the best interest of the estate of said minors to employ said counsel on the basis after to the end that recovery of said fund may be attempted for the reason that, otherwise, there can be no prosecution or recovery of said claim.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner prays an order of this Court ratifying the tentative agreement already made and authorizing your petitioner on behalf of said wards, to enter into a contract with said attorneys whereby they shall have and receive for their services rendered and to be rendered forty per cent of the net sum recovered and to be recovered by them in any proceedings brought or to be brought for the recovery of said trust fund.

In the Matter of the Estates of Dorthy and Byron Porterfield, Minors. } Order to Employ Counsel.
Curator. }

Now comes Katherine Porterfield, Guardian and Curator of the persons and estates of Dorthy Porterfield and Byron Porterfield, minors, and presents her petition praying for an order of this Court to enter into a contract with attorneys to prosecute a claim for preference against the Farmers Exchange Bank on account of Twenty Thousand Dollar Trust fund placed in the hands of said Bank for investment, which petition is taken up, considered by the Court and the evidence thereon heard, and it appearing to the Court that said estate has a just claim for preference against the Farmers Exchange Bank arising out of the trust fund of Twenty Thousand dollars placed in the hands of said bank for investment; that said bank is now in liquidation, at the hands of the Finance Department of the State of Missouri; that said minors have no other estate excepting said claim; that they have no means with which to employ counsel or prosecute a suit, or to pay the expense necessary to be incurred in the undertaking to recover said trust fund; that said Guardian and Curator has entered into a tentative agreement with Nat G. Cruzen and Dudley & Brandom, Attorneys at Law, of Gallatin, Missouri, subject to the ratification and approval of this Court whereby said attorneys agree to undertake a recovery of said fund upon a contingent fee of forty percent of the amount of the net recovery for their services rendered and to be rendered therein. And it further appearing to the Court that said minors have no other way to prosecute their claim; that the compensation for services for said attorney is reasonable and just and that it would be for the best interest of the estate of said minors to enter into such contract to the end that recovery of such claim may be prosecuted with diligence.

It is therefore by the Court now ordered, that the action of said Guardian and Curator in entering into a tentative arrangement subject to the approval of this Court with said attorneys, be and the same is hereby ratified and confirmed, and the said Guardian and Curator is now hereby ordered, directed and authorized to enter into a written contract with said attorneys in consideration of legal services heretofore rendered and to be rendered in that behalf to pay out of the fund recovered, if any, forty per cent of the net amount recovered, to said attorneys as their compensation in connection with the prosecution of said claim.
