Houghton, administrator of the estate of Frederick Cox, deceased, and shows the court that among the assets of said estate was a note for $300.00 dated July 13, 1925, due three years after date, signed by John Johnson and Annie Johnson, for $300.00 on which note are the following credits: October 27, 1926, paid on interest, $3.00; October 28, 1926, paid on interest $4.00; November 3, 1926 paid on interest $4.00; November 6, 1926, paid on interest $6.00; November 22, 1926, paid on interest $6.00; that the balance of said note and the interest thereon are still due; that said note is secured by a deed of trust on Lots 9 and 10 in Block 54, in the city of Hamilton, Missouri; upon which lot is a small dwelling house and small outbuildings, that said note is long past due and your administrator has made an effort to collect said note but has been unable to do so.

That in the opinion of your administrator he states that the buildings and the lots above described are not worth the debt represented by said note and accumulated interest thereon, that there are back taxes for the years 1926, 1927, 1928, amounting to $/..... and taxes are delinquent and unpaid on said real estate and the property is not worth the back taxes and the amount of debt described above.

That John Johnson and his wife proposed to pay $100.00 in cash for the surrender of the $300.00 note above described, and in the opinion of the administrator he states that it would be for the best interest of said estate and for the creditors of said estate that the compromise by said John Johnson should be accepted; that your administrator states that if foreclosure of said deed of trust was had that in his opinion the $100.00 offered by Johnson is more than he would realize after paying the expenses of publication and sale of it under foreclosure proceedings.
