and to prevent the sale the note was paid by the direction and order of James H. McCaskey Judge of the Probate Court at that time.

All of the items for which credit are taken above were actually paid out by me -- there yet remains debts to be paid an allowed demand in favor of the Administrator for medical services rendered allowed in the sum of $232.50. Also a claim presented in favor of the Administrator founded on a note given by William B. Guthery to the Administrator N.M. Hetzel.

There is no funds available to pay these allowances or any other claims that may be allowed against the estate.

The estate got into litigation the administrator was about to make an application in legal form for sale of the real estate to pay debts when the interest being delinquent and there being no money to pay interest with, the first mortgage was foreclosed and the land only brought enough to pay the debt, interest and costs of foreclosure.

There is no other assets belonging to the estate so far as this Administrator knows, except a fund now in litigation between the estate and the Guardian of James A. Guthery.
