00					253	84
00		As will appear from a schedule on the back page of this settlement the allowed unpaid debts, demands and claims against the estate aggregate $1911.15. There is no personal assets to pay these debts. The land is the homestead of Lucy M. Johnson, the widow. It is not desired to sell any portion of the land at this time for the payment of debts. And it is desired to let the estate stand in its present situation until such time as it may be absolutely necessary to sell the land or take other action for the payment of these debts and for this reason the Administrator prays that administration be suspended, the full time allowed by law for the presentation and classification and allowance of demands having expired and the exact indebtedness of the estate now being definitely known.
