And this Administrator represents to the Court that he returns herewith as one of the vouchers the note of Alva Prindle for which credits was taken as insolvent the said note signed by Neil Chambers not charged to this Administrator upon which there remains unpaid the sum of $144.42 which said note is insolvent and cannot be collected, has a mortgage on all the share of John S. Prindle in the estate and has been notified by the Farmers Exchange Bank of Gallatin and the Bank of Winston that they have an assignment of all the interest John S. Prindle in the estate, and further has been advised that a judgment has been rendered in the Circuit Court against John S. Prindle for costs aggregating $257.90 created in the case of Jasper Prindle et al. vs John S. Prindle et al. which judgment has been filed in the Probate Court as a lien on the share of John S. Prindle. This Administrator further says that at the time of the death of Nancy J. Prindle her heirs consisted of her two sons, John S. Prindle and Jasper Prindle; one Grand-son, John Booram, the son of John S. Prindle deceased daughter Mary Booram; Also two Grand-children, Alva Prindle and Goldie Prindle, the children of a deceased son, Thomas Prindle. That said Goldie Prindle died leaving one heir, Gwendoline Shaffer, so that the sole heirs of Nancy J. Prindle are: John S. Prindle, Jasper Prindle, her sons, each being entitled to one-fourth; John Booram, a Grand-son, entitled to one-fourth; Alva Prindle, a Grand-son, to one-eighth and Gwendoline Shaffer, a Great-grand-daughter entitled to one-eighth. And this Administrator prays an order of distribution to said parties or their voluntary or involuntary grantees and assigns accordingly.

And this Adm'r represents to this Court that in addition to the above balance of $161.06 due this Adm'r on this sett. there remains unpaid an allowed demand allowed to this Bank of Coffey in the principal sum of $450.00 called the Mc Ruth note upon which no interest has been paid and upon which there is now due some where in the neighborhood of $550.00 and there is also unpaid an allowed demand for funeral expenses allowed by this Court in the sum of $693.50 allowed in favor of W. D. Haynes upon which no interest has been paid and upon which there is now due in the neighborhood of $770.00 making a total indebtedness of the estate remaining unpaid of approximately - $1436.66 for the payment of which real estate will have to be sold unless some other arrangement is made, and this Adm'r believing it to be wise owing to the present low price of land to postpone the sale real estate as long as possible respectfully
