And comes now said Administrator and represents to the Court that heretofore, on Oct. 21st 1924 J. E. Hankins by his quit claims deeds recorded 534, 535 and 537, respectively, deeded his interest in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of this County in Book 123 at pages 534, 535 and 537 respectively, deeded his interest in the personal property belonging to this estate to the other three heirs and distribution Effie J. Gaines, Mary Ellen Bosch and James M. Hankins - that is, deeded an undivided 1/12 interest to each; that heretofore and on Oct. 28, 1924 as shown by this settlement, said administrator turned over to said parties (three parties) entitled to share in this distribution certain personal property and effects at their appraised value as follows: To J. M. Hankins, $49.75 to Effie Gaines $32.60 and to Ella Bosch $80.54 - same to be figured in their distributions shares in this estate - that of the sum of $3257.69 above shown still in the hands of said administrator and for distribution, there is $123.48 representing the balance due on the note of S. A. and F. L. Scott and which this Administrator has been unable to collect. And said administrator prays the Court for an order of distribution authorizing and directing him as said administrator to pay out the funds in his hands and turn over the Scott note to those entitled to share in said distribution of this estate as follows:

To James M. Hankins the sum of ----- $ 1049.38
 " Effie J. Gaines " " " 1066.53
 " Ellen Bosch " " " 1018.24
 each of the above parties an undivided said Scott note
 1/3 interest in the said Scott note - balance still due being 123.48
 Total for distribution 3257.69
 And said administrator asks that upon filing hereon proper receipts for said distribution shares he be fully and finally discharged as administrator herein.

|                   | Which estate consist of $1591.35 in cash, and a judgment in favor of said Estate and against A. L. Terry rendered by the Circuit Court of Daviess County, Missouri, at the October term 1925, upon which said Administrators have been unable to realize anything; they therefore ask for an order of this court, under Section 232 of the R. S. 1919 for the sale of said judgment against said A. L. Terry, which said judgment amounts to $658.78. The said Administrators now hold the receipt of Flora B. Terry for her distributive share of one-eleventh upon the final distribution of this estate and it is agreed that the said above judgment against A. L. Terry is to be credited with whatever amount is due the said Flora B. Terry upon final settlement of this estate |         |      |         |      |
