Last will and testament of Sinyeard M. Linville, and

JOINT WILL AND TESTAMENT OF

SINYEARD M. LINVILLE AND

ELIZA LINVILLE

We, Sinyeard M. Linville and Eliza Linville, husband and wife, hereby make, publish and declare this instrument to be our Joint-Wills and our Last Will and Testament:

We have been married and enjoyed the faithful companionship of each other for nearly half a century. We have had seven sons, two of whom died in infancy and five grew to manhood. Aside from a very little property owned by us at our marriage and a little coming by inheritance the property we now possess is the result of our joint labor, frugality and economy. It is our desire that the survivor shall have the benefit of all of our property so long as he or she shall live, and we both desire that upon the death of both of us it shall be disposed of in the manner hereinafter set forth, and, to that end, and as a matter of agreement and contract between us based upon the fact that we consider that we have an equal interest in the property owned by both of us, we have agreed to and now make the following disposition of said property and all of it:

It is our will:

That any and all debts we may owe be paid out of our estate as soon as practicable after our death:

Second: I, Sinyeard M. Linville, hereby will, devise and bequeath to my dearly beloved wife, Eliza Linville, all of my property, real, personal and mixed, however described and wherever situated, to possess, have and enjoy so long as she lives subject to the joint provisions of this will hereinafter contained.

Third: I, Eliza Linville, hereby will, devise and bequeath to my dearly beloved husband Sinyeard M. Linville, all of my property, real, personal and mixed, however described and wherever situate, to possess, have and enjoy so long as he lives subject to the joint provisions of this will hereinafter contained.

Fourth: For reasons satisfactory to ourselves we will, devise and bequeath to our two Grand-children, Floyd Linville, and Opal McBrayer, the two children of our deceased son, Isaac Harden Linville, the sum of One Hundred Dollars each and no more.

Fifth: We will devise and bequeath to William Sinyeard Linville, our son, the five acres upon which the house in which we are now living is situated, being the West Five acres of the north twenty acres of the North West quarter of the South West quarter of Section Thirteen (13), Township Fifth-eight (58) of range Twenty-eight (28) in Daviess County, Missouri and this five acres and the improvements on it are given him by this will in recognition of his kindness, consideration of and attention to us.

Sixth: It is our joint will and agreement that we shall both enjoy the possession, use, benefit and income of our property so long as we both shall live; that the survivor of us shall enjoy all the property and the possession, use, rent, income, profits and benefits of all of said property so long as the survivor lives.

Seventh: It is our further joint will that in the event of any extraordinary emergency occurring during the lifetime of the last survivor requiring, for maintenance, or for care in sickness, or from any other necessity a greater expenditure than the income of the property will produce, such last survivor shall have the power to sell, and convey the remaining thirty-five acres (excepting the five acres devised to William in the last Paragraph of this will) of the North west quarter of the southwest quarter of Section Thirteen (13), township Fifty-eight (58) of Range Twenty Eight (28), That is: this power of sale shall extend to and cover all of said forty acre tract excepting the five acres herein given to William, but no power of sale shall exist as to any other property owned by us, the thirty-five acres aforesaid being the only property subject to such power of sale.

Eighth: It is our joint will that our four living sons, shall have the residue of our porpe property upon the death of the last survivor of us, and to that end we will, devise and bequeath to our sons, Jesse Greene Linville, James A. Linville, Ephrem M. L'nville, and William Sinyeard Linville, as residuary legatees, all the rest, residue and remainder of our property, real, personal and mixed, howeyer described andwherever situate, to take, hold and enjoy from and after our death and the death of the last survivor of us, equall, share and share alike.

Ninth: It is our joint will that upon the death of either one of us the survivor be and is hereby appointed the Executor or Executri~~x~~ of this will without Bond and upon the death of us our son, William Sinyeard Linville, in whom we repose great confidence, is hereby appointed as Executor, without bond.

This will dated at Gallatin, Missouri, this November 7th, 1921.

Item 1. It is my Will and I direct that all my just debts and the expenses of my last sickness and burial be paid by my Executrix as soon after my decease as can conveniently be done, and without having had same allowed by the Probate Court.

Item 2. I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Rose E. Claypool, all of the property, real personal or mixed, of which I may die seized, to have and to hold the same for and during the term of her natural life. This bequest is made subject to the payment of all indebtedness, as provided in Item 1.

Item 3. I give, devise and bequeath to my children, William Arthur Claypool, Truman Austin Claypool and Alfred Roscoe Claypool, all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, left at the death of my said wife, whether the same be real, personal or mixed, to have and to hold the same, to my said sons and unto their heirs and assigns forever. This bequest is made subject to the payment of the expenses of the last sickness and burial of my said wife.

Item 4. In the event that the personal property of which I may die seized is not sufficient for the payment of the debts due and owing by my estate, and to avoid the sale of the land to pay said debts, it is my Will, and I do hereby authorize the Executrix of this my last Will, to borrow money sufficient to pay said debts, and to that end to make, execute and deliver notes and mortgage or Deed of Trust conveying any or all of the real estate of which I may die seized, for the benefit of the mortgagee, the same as I could do if living.

Item 5. I hereby appoint my wife, Rose E. Claypool, to be the executrix of this my Will, and direct that she be permitted to serve as such without bond.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name to this my last Will and Testament, this 30th day of July, 1924, in the presence of the persons whose names appear below, and whom I have requested to become attesting witnesses hereto.
