The household and kitchen furniture of deceased, we have examined and estimate them to be of no greater value than what is allowed to the widow under the Statutes of the State of Missouri, as her absolute property

In addition to above, we find that deceased had two claims against the Farmers Exchange Bank of Gallatin, Missouri, now in the hands of the State Finance Commissioner of the State of Missouri, for liquidation, one of which claims is based on a demand deposit in the sum of $150.00 and the other based on a Time Certificate of Deposit in the sum of $825.33, both of which claims have been allowed as common claims against said bank but, as the amount ultimately to be realized from said claims is so uncertain and unknown, we have placed no value on them in this inventory
