O. P. Chaney heirs of Matilda Chaney Deceased Defendants

Comes now the plaintiff by his attorneys Gellisham & Brasius, and the defendants having waived the service of summons and notice upon them of the pendency of plaintiffs petition and entered their appearance herein, which petition prays a construction of the second clause of Henry Karns last will and Testament, and that the Court direct the course of plaintiff as Executor thereof with respect to the sale of the lands of deceased remaining unsold, and all and singular the matters and things set up and contained in the plaintiffs petition being submitted to the Court, and by the Court seen and heard, The Court doth find that the second clause in the will of said Henry Karn deceased directing the plaintiff Daniel Blackburn Executor thereof within two years after the deceased of said Testator to sell at private sale on the best terms that can be obtained the Real Estate in said will named and described as follows, viz: S $\frac{1}{2}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$ and NW $\frac{1}{4}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$ and W $\frac{1}{2}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$ and the E $\frac{1}{2}$ NW $\frac{1}{4}$ all in Section 4, And part SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$ North & West of Honey Creek in Section 3. in Township 58 Range 27 230 acres, does not limit or bind said Executor to sell said land within two years from the date of the death of said testator and that the true intent and meaning of said testator was that his Executor within a reasonable time thereafter sell said land and that said Executor still has the power under the terms of said will to sell at private sale on the best terms that can be obtained all that part of said Real Estate remaining unsold by him, notwithstanding more than two years have expired since the death of said deceased. Said Executor is therefore directed to sell all the remaining lands of said deceased according to the terms and provisions of said will and account for and dispose of the proceeds thereof as therein described as soon as practicable notwithstanding to years have elapsed since the date of the death of said deceased and that the Estate of Henry Kern pay the cost of this proceeding and judgment accordingly.

Also 40 acres described as follows; The South East quarter of the North East quarter of Section No Twenty Nine (29) Township Sixty three (63) Range Twenty Eight (28) situate in Harrison County Missouri. Setting forth that said property in the Town of Ladue consists of a dwelling used as a hotel, that said Hotel only rents for five dollars per month, and has been and is likely to be a constant source of expence, that said 40 acres of Real Estate in Henry County is farm land fenced but without buildings or other improvements, and is being reduced in value each year for want of care, and is situate at so great a distance from your petitioner (the curator) that the care of said Real Estate is a very great expence and burden to said ward and is likely to decrease rather than increase in value. That said tract of land in Harrison County is covered with dense timber and is wholly unproductive and is yielding no revenue to the said Estate whatever. That it would be greatly for the benefit of said ward if said Real Estate should be sold at once and the proceeds thereof loaned out at the highest obtainable rate of interest, and the Court having heard the petition and Evidence in relation thereto is satisfied said order should be granted. It is therefore ordered by the Court that said Curator be and
