451.020. CERTAIN MARRIAGES PROHIBITED.—OFFICIAL ISSUING LICENSE TO CERTAIN PERSONS GUILTY OF MISDEMEANOR.—All marrriages between parents and children, including grandparents and grand children of every degree, between brothers and sisters of the half as well the whole blood, between uncles and nieces, aunts and nephews, first cousins, white persons and negroes or white persons and Mongolians, and between persons either of whom is insane, mentally imbecile, feeble-minded or epileptic, are prohibited and declared absolutely void; and it shall be unlawful for any city, county or state official having authority to issue marriage licenses to issue such marriage licenses to the persons heretofore designated* * *.

451.040. LICENSE REQUIRED — APPLICATION THREE DAYS BEFORE ISSUANCE — COMMON LAW MARRIAGE VOID — EXCEPTIONS.—1. Previous to any marriage in this state a license for that purpose shall be obtained from the officer authorized to issue the same, and no marriage hereafter contracted shall be recognized as valid unless such license has been previously obtained, and unless such marriage is solemnized by a person authorized by law to solemnize marriages. 2. Before applications for a marriage license shall receive a license, and before the recorder of deeds shall be authorized to issue a license, the parties to the marriage must, at least three days before the date they desire such license to be issued, present an application for the license to the recorder of deeds. Upon the expiration of three days after the receipt of such application, duly executed and signed, the recorder of deeds shall issue the license, unless one of the parties withdraws the application. 3. Provided, however, that said license may be issued on order of the circuit or probate court or a judge thereof in vacation of the county in which said license is applied for, without waiting three days as herein provided, such license being issued only for good cause shown and by reason of such unusual condition as to make such marriage advisable. 4. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. 5. Common law marriages hereafter contracted shall be null and void. 6. Provided, however, that no marriage shall be deemed or adjudged invalid, nor shall the validity thereof be in any way affected on account of any want of authority in any person so solemnizing the same under section 451.100, if consummated with the full belief on the part of the persons, so married, or either of them, that they were lawfully joined in marriage.

451.020. CERTAIN MARRIAGES PROHIBITED.—OFFICIAL ISSUING LICENSE TO CERTAIN PERSONS GUILTY OF MISDEMEANOR.—All marrriages between parents and children, including grandparents and grand children of every degree, between brothers and sisters of the half as well the whole blood, between uncles and nieces, aunts and nephews, first cousins, white persons and negroes or white persons and Mongolians, and between persons either of whom is insane, mentally imbecile, feeble-minded or epileptic, are prohibited and declared absolutely void; and it shall be unlawful for any city, county or state official having authority to issue marriage licenses to issue such marriage licenses to the persons heretofore designated* * *.

451.040. LICENSE REQUIRED — APPLICATION THREE DAYS BEFORE ISSUANCE — COMMON LAW MARRIAGE VOID — EXCEPTIONS.—1. Previous to any marriage in this state a license for that purpose shall be obtained from the officer authorized to issue the same, and no marriage hereafter contracted shall be recognized as valid unless such license has been previously obtained, and unless such marriage is solemnized by a person authorized by law to solemnize marriages. 2. Before applications for a marriage license shall receive a license, and before the recorder of deeds shall be authorized to issue a license, the parties to the marriage must, at least three days before the date they desire such license to be issued, present an application for the license to the recorder of deeds. Upon the expiration of three days after the receipt of such application, duly executed and signed, the recorder of deeds shall issue the license, unless one of the parties withdraws the application. 3. Provided, however, that said license may be issued on order of the circuit or probate court or a judge thereof in vacation of the county in which said license is applied for, without waiting three days as herein provided, such license being issued only for good cause shown and by reason of such unusual condition as to make such marriage advisable. 4. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. 5. Common law marriages hereafter contracted shall be null and void. 6. Provided, however, that no marriage shall be deemed or adjudged invalid, nor shall the validity thereof be in any way affected on account of any want of authority in any person so solemnizing the same under section 451.100, if consummated with the full belief on the part of the persons, so married, or either of them, that they were lawfully joined in marriage.

451.020. CERTAIN MARRIAGES PROHIBITED.—OFFICIAL ISSUING LICENSE TO CERTAIN PERSONS GUILTY OF MISDEMEANOR.—All marrriages between parents and children, including grandparents and grand children of every degree, between brothers and sisters of the half as well the whole blood, between uncles and nieces, aunts and nephews, first cousins, white persons and negroes or white persons and Mongolians, and between persons either of whom is insane, mentally imbecile, feeble-minded or epileptic, are prohibited and declared absolutely void; and it shall be unlawful for any city, county or state official having authority to issue marriage licenses to issue such marriage licenses to the persons heretofore designated* * *.

451.040. LICENSE REQUIRED — APPLICATION THREE DAYS BEFORE ISSUANCE — COMMON LAW MARRIAGE VOID — EXCEPTIONS.—1. Previous to any marriage in this state a license for that purpose shall be obtained from the officer authorized to issue the same, and no marriage hereafter contracted shall be recognized as valid unless such license has been previously obtained, and unless such marriage is solemnized by a person authorized by law to solemnize marriages. 2. Before applications for a marriage license shall receive a license, and before the recorder of deeds shall be authorized to issue a license, the parties to the marriage must, at least three days before the date they desire such license to be issued, present an application for the license to the recorder of deeds. Upon the expiration of three days after the receipt of such application, duly executed and signed, the recorder of deeds shall issue the license, unless one of the parties withdraws the application. 3. Provided, however, that said license may be issued on order of the circuit or probate court or a judge thereof in vacation of the county in which said license is applied for, without waiting three days as herein provided, such license being issued only for good cause shown and by reason of such unusual condition as to make such marriage advisable. 4. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. 5. Common law marriages hereafter contracted shall be null and void. 6. Provided, however, that no marriage shall be deemed or adjudged invalid, nor shall the validity thereof be in any way affected on account of any want of authority in any person so solemnizing the same under section 451.100, if consummated with the full belief on the part of the persons, so married, or either of them, that they were lawfully joined in marriage.

451.020. CERTAIN MARRIAGES PROHIBITED.—OFFICIAL ISSUING LICENSE TO CERTAIN PERSONS GUILTY OF MISDEMEANOR.—All marrriages between parents and children, including grandparents and grand children of every degree, between brothers and sisters of the half as well the whole blood, between uncles and nieces, aunts and nephews, first cousins, white persons and negroes or white persons and Mongolians, and between persons either of whom is insane, mentally imbecile, feeble-minded or epileptic, are prohibited and declared absolutely void; and it shall be unlawful for any city, county or state official having authority to issue marriage licenses to issue such marriage licenses to the persons heretofore designated* * *.

451.040. LICENSE REQUIRED — APPLICATION THREE DAYS BEFORE ISSUANCE — COMMON LAW MARRIAGE VOID — EXCEPTIONS.—1. Previous to any marriage in this state a license for that purpose shall be obtained from the officer authorized to issue the same, and no marriage hereafter contracted shall be recognized as valid unless such license has been previously obtained, and unless such marriage is solemnized by a person authorized by law to solemnize marriages. 2. Before applications for a marriage license shall receive a license, and before the recorder of deeds shall be authorized to issue a license, the parties to the marriage must, at least three days before the date they desire such license to be issued, present an application for the license to the recorder of deeds. Upon the expiration of three days after the receipt of such application, duly executed and signed, the recorder of deeds shall issue the license, unless one of the parties withdraws the application. 3. Provided, however, that said license may be issued on order of the circuit or probate court or a judge thereof in vacation of the county in which said license is applied for, without waiting three days as herein provided, such license being issued only for good cause shown and by reason of such unusual condition as to make such marriage advisable. 4. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. 5. Common law marriages hereafter contracted shall be null and void. 6. Provided, however, that no marriage shall be deemed or adjudged invalid, nor shall the validity thereof be in any way affected on account of any want of authority in any person so solemnizing the same under section 451.100, if consummated with the full belief on the part of the persons, so married, or either of them, that they were lawfully joined in marriage.
