451.020. CERTAIN MARRIAGES PROHIBITED.—OFFICIAL ISSUING LICENSE TO CERTAIN PERSONS GUILTY OF MISDEMEANOR.—All marrriages between parents and children, including grandparents and grand children of every degree, between brothers and sisters of the half as well the whole blood, between uncles and nieces, aunts and nephews, first cousins, white persons and negroes or white persons and Mongolians, and between persons either of whom is insane, mentally imbecile, feeble-minded or epileptic, are prohibited and declared absolutely void; and it shall be unlawful for any city, county or state official having authority to issue marriage licenses to issue such marriage licenses to the persons heretofore designated* * *.

451.040. LICENSE REQUIRED — APPLICATION THREE DAYS BEFORE ISSUANCE — COMMON LAW MARRIAGE VOID — EXCEPTIONS.—1. Previous to any marriage in this state a license for that purpose shall be obtained from the officer authorized to issue the same, and no marriage hereafter contracted shall be recognized as valid unless such license has been previously obtained, and unless such marriage is solemnized by a person authorized by law to solemnize marriages. 2. Before applications for a marriage license shall receive a license, and before the recorder of deeds shall be authorized to issue a license, the parties to the marriage must, at least three days before the date they desire such license to be issued, present an application for the license to the recorder of deeds. Upon the expiration of three days after the receipt of such application, duly executed and signed, the recorder of deeds shall issue the license, unless one of the parties withdraws the application. 3. Provided, however, that said license may be issued on order of the circuit or probate court or a judge thereof in vacation of the county in which said license is applied for, without waiting three days as herein provided, such license being issued only for good cause shown and by reason of such unusual condition as to make such marriage advisable. 4. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. 5. Common law marriages hereafter contracted shall be null and void. 6. Provided, however, that no marriage shall be deemed or adjudged invalid, nor shall the validity thereof be in any way affected on account of any want of authority in any person so solemnizing the same under section 451.100, if consummated with the full belief on the part of the persons, so married, or either of them, that they were lawfully joined in marriage.

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES

Under Sec. 451.100 as amended 1969 "marriages may be solemnized by any clergyman, either active or retired, who is a citizen of the United States, and who is in good standing with any church or synagogue in this state, or by any judge of a court of record, or by any religious society, religious institution, or religious organization of this state, according to the regulations and customs of the society, institution or organization, when either party to the marriage to be solemnized is a member of such society, institution or organization." Any person not so authorized who attempts to solemnize a marriage is guilty of a misdemeanor. Marriages between persons who are related in certain degrees of consanguinity and between persons one of whom is insane, mentally imbecile or feeble-minded, are prohibited.

Sec. 451.040 prohibits any marriage from being performed unless a license has been obtained from the Recorder. Such license must be applied for on a form issued by the Recorder three days before the license is issued unless such waiting period is dispensed with by order of the judge of the court of record. Violation of this section is a misdemeanor. In all cases the parties to be married are required to make affidavit of freedom from syphilis and to support the same by physician's or laboratory certificate, under Sec. 451.050. Penalties for violation are prescribed. When the marriage has been performed, the person solemnizing the same must give a certificate of marriage, the form of which is supplied herewith, to the persons married. (Sec. 451.110.) The person performing the marriage is required to keep a record thereof. (Sec. 451.120.) A clerk who fails to properly issue a license or the celebrant of the marriage who fails to make a return thereof on the license is subject to penalty prescribed by Sec. 451.130. Sec. 563.250 "Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage unlawful or criminal in either of the parties under any law of this state, or, having knowledge or reasonable cause to believe that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or is insane, mentally imbecile, feeble-minded or epileptic, or where to his knowledge, any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriage who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive an innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES

Under Sec. 451.100 as amended 1969 "marriages may be solemnized by any clergyman, either active or retired, who is a citizen of the United States, and who is in good standing with any church or synagogue in this state, or by any judge of a court of record, or by any religious society, religious institution, or religious organization of this state, according to the regulations and customs of the society, institution or organization, when either party to the marriage to be solemnized is a member of such society, institution or organization." Any person not so authorized who attempts to solemnize a marriage is guilty of a misdemeanor. Marriages between persons who are related in certain degrees of consanguinity and between persons one of whom is insane, mentally imbecile or feeble-minded, are prohibited.

Sec. 451.040 prohibits any marriage from being performed unless a license has been obtained from the Recorder. Such license must be applied for on a form issued by the Recorder three days before the license is issued unless such waiting period is dispensed with by order of the judge of the court of record. Violation of this section is a misdemeanor. In all cases the parties to be married are required to make affidavit of freedom from syphilis and to support the same by physician's or laboratory certificate, under Sec. 451.050. Penalties for violation are prescribed. When the marriage has been performed, the person solemnizing the same must give a certificate of marriage, the form of which is supplied herewith, to the persons married. (Sec. 451.110.) The person performing the marriage is required to keep a record thereof. (Sec. 451.120.) A clerk who fails to properly issue a license or the celebrant of the marriage who fails to make a return thereof on the license is subject to penalty prescribed by Sec. 451.130. Under Sec. 451.100 as amended 1969 "marriages may be solemnized by any clergyman, either active or retired, who is a citizen of the United States, and who is in good standing with any church or synagogue in this state, or by any judge of a court of record, or by any religious society, religious institution, or religious organization of this state, according to the regulations and customs of the society, institution or organization, when either party to the marriage to be solemnized is a member of such society, institution or organization." Any person not so authorized who attempts to solemnize a marriage is guilty of a misdemeanor. Marriages between persons who are related in certain degrees of consanguinity and between persons one of whom is insane, mentally imbecile or feeble-minded, are prohibited.

Sec. 451.040 prohibits any marriage from being performed unless a license has been obtained from the Recorder. Such license must be applied for on a form issued by the Recorder three days before the license is issued unless such waiting period is dispensed with by order of the judge of the court of record. Violation of this section is a misdemeanor. In all cases the parties to be married are required to make affidavit of freedom from syphilis and to support the same by physician's or laboratory certificate, under Sec. 451.050. Penalties for violation are prescribed. When the marriage has been performed, the person solemnizing the same must give a certificate of marriage, the form of which is supplied herewith, to the persons married. (Sec. 451.110.) The person performing the marriage is required to keep a record thereof. (Sec. 451.120.) A clerk who fails to properly issue a license or the celebrant of the marriage who fails to make a return thereof on the license is subject to penalty prescribed by Sec. 451.130. Sec. 563.250 "Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage unlawful or criminal in either of the parties under any law of this state, or, having knowledge or reasonable cause to believe that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or is insane, mentally imbecile, feeble-minded or epileptic, or where to his knowledge, any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriage who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive an innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES

Under Sec. 451.100 as amended 1969 "marriages may be solemnized by any clergyman, either active or retired, who is a citizen of the United States, and who is in good standing with any church or synagogue in this state, or by any judge of a court of record, or by any religious society, religious institution, or religious organization of this state, according to the regulations and customs of the society, institution or organization, when either party to the marriage to be solemnized is a member of such society, institution or organization." Any person not so authorized who attempts to solemnize a marriage is guilty of a misdemeanor. Marriages between persons who are related in certain degrees of consanguinity and between persons one of whom is insane, mentally imbecile or feeble-minded, are prohibited.

Sec. 451.040 prohibits any marriage from being performed unless a license has been obtained from the Recorder. Such license must be applied for on a form issued by the Recorder three days before the license is issued unless such waiting period is dispensed with by order of the judge of the court of record. Violation of this section is a misdemeanor. In all cases the parties to be married are required to make affidavit of freedom from syphilis and to support the same by physician's or laboratory certificate, under Sec. 451.050. Penalties for violation are prescribed. When the marriage has been performed, the person solemnizing the same must give a certificate of marriage, the form of which is supplied herewith, to the persons married. (Sec. 451.110.) The person performing the marriage is required to keep a record thereof. (Sec. 451.120.) A clerk who fails to properly issue a license or the celebrant of the marriage who fails to make a return thereof on the license is subject to penalty prescribed by Sec. 451.130. Sec. 563.250 "Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage unlawful or criminal in either of the parties under any law of this state, or, having knowledge or reasonable cause to believe that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or is insane, mentally imbecile, feeble-minded or epileptic, or where to his knowledge, any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriage who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive an innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES

Under Sec. 451.100 as amended 1969 "marriages may be solemnized by any clergyman, either active or retired, who is a citizen of the United States, and who is in good standing with any church or synagogue in this state, or by any judge of a court of record, or by any religious society, religious institution, or religious organization of this state, according to the regulations and customs of the society, institution or organization, when either party to the marriage to be solemnized is a member of such society, institution or organization." Any person not so authorized who attempts to solemnize a marriage is guilty of a misdemeanor. Marriages between persons who are related in certain degrees of consanguinity and between persons one of whom is insane, mentally imbecile or feeble-minded, are prohibited.

Sec. 451.040 prohibits any marriage from being performed unless a license has been obtained from the Recorder. Such license must be applied for on a form issued by the Recorder three days before the license is issued unless such waiting period is dispensed with by order of the judge of the court of record. Violation of this section is a misdemeanor. In all cases the parties to be married are required to make affidavit of freedom from syphilis and to support the same by physician's or laboratory certificate, under Sec. 451.050. Penalties for violation are prescribed. When the marriage has been performed, the person solemnizing the same must give a certificate of marriage, the form of which is supplied herewith, to the persons married. (Sec. 451.110.) The person performing the marriage is required to keep a record thereof. (Sec. 451.120.) A clerk who fails to properly issue a license or the celebrant of the marriage who fails to make a return thereof on the license is subject to penalty prescribed by Sec. 451.130. Sec. 563.250 "Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage unlawful or criminal in either of the parties under any law of this state, or, having knowledge or reasonable cause to believe that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or is insane, mentally imbecile, feeble-minded or epileptic, or where to his knowledge, any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriage who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive an innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment."
