SECTION 8286. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for failure to Issue, Record or Return License." If any recorder willfully neglect or refuse to issue a license to any person legally entitled thereto on application, on payment or tender of the fee provided for in the next preceding section, or shall fail or refuse to record such license with the return thereon, as herein provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. Every officer or person who shall fail to return a license within ninety days after the issuing of the same, or who shall make a false return thereon, or any recorder who shall willfully make a false record of any marriage license or return thereon, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the preceding part of this section.

SECTION 4728. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Illegally Solemnizing Marriages." Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage criminal in either of the parties, under the preceding provisions of this article, or having knowledge that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or where, to his knowledge any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriages, who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive any innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES.

If you are not a citizen of the United States, (or a resident of and pastor of some church in this State), besides possessing the other necessary legal qualifications, you cannot solemnize marriages, and would be liable to both fine and imprisonment for so doing. Read License carefully.

Section 8288. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Certificate of Marriage to be Given." Every person solemnizing marriages under this chapter, shall issue and deliver to the parties to such marriage a certificate thereof, which shall be furnished in blank by the officer who issues such license, setting forth the names and residence of the parties and the date of such marriage, and the county from which the license was issued, and the date of same. (Use the attached blank for this purpose.)

Section 8290. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for Solemnizing Marriage without License, or Failing to Keep a Record thereof." Any person who shall solemnize any marriage wherein the parties have not obtained a license, as provided by this chapter, or shall fail to keep a record of the solemnization of any marriage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in addition shall be subject to a civil action by the parent, guardian or other person having care or custody of the person so married, to whom services are due, wherein the recovery shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and any Recorder who shall issue a license contrary to the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a like punishment."

SECTION 8286. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for failure to Issue, Record or Return License." If any recorder willfully neglect or refuse to issue a license to any person legally entitled thereto on application, on payment or tender of the fee provided for in the next preceding section, or shall fail or refuse to record such license with the return thereon, as herein provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. Every officer or person who shall fail to return a license within ninety days after the issuing of the same, or who shall make a false return thereon, or any recorder who shall willfully make a false record of any marriage license or return thereon, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the preceding part of this section.

SECTION 4728. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Illegally Solemnizing Marriages." Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage criminal in either of the parties, under the preceding provisions of this article, or having knowledge that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or where, to his knowledge any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriages, who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive any innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES.

If you are not a citizen of the United States, (or a resident of and pastor of some church in this State), besides possessing the other necessary legal qualifications, you cannot solemnize marriages, and would be liable to both fine and imprisonment for so doing. Read License carefully.

Section 8288. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Certificate of Marriage to be Given." Every person solemnizing marriages under this chapter, shall issue and deliver to the parties to such marriage a certificate thereof, which shall be furnished in blank by the officer who issues such license, setting forth the names and residence of the parties and the date of such marriage, and the county from which the license was issued, and the date of same. (Use the attached blank for this purpose.)

Section 8290. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for Solemnizing Marriage without License, or Failing to Keep a Record thereof." Any person who shall solemnize any marriage wherein the parties have not obtained a license, as provided by this chapter, or shall fail to keep a record of the solemnization of any marriage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in addition shall be subject to a civil action by the parent, guardian or other person having care or custody of the person so married, to whom services are due, wherein the recovery shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and any Recorder who shall issue a license contrary to the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a like punishment."

If any recorder willfully neglect or refuse to issue a license to any person legally entitled thereto on application, on payment or tender of the fee provided for in the next preceding section, or shall fail or refuse to record such license with the return thereon, as herein provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. Every officer or person who shall fail to return a license within ninety days after the issuing of the same, or who shall make a false return thereon, or any recorder who shall willfully make a false record of any marriage license or return thereon, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the preceding part of this section.

SECTION 4728. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Illegally Solemnizing Marriages." Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage criminal in either of the parties, under the preceding provisions of this article, or having knowledge that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or where, to his knowledge any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriages, who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive any innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES.

If you are not a citizen of the United States, (or a resident of and pastor of some church in this State), besides possessing the other necessary legal qualifications, you cannot solemnize marriages, and would be liable to both fine and imprisonment for so doing. Read License carefully.

Section 8288. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Certificate of Marriage to be Given." Every person solemnizing marriages under this chapter, shall issue and deliver to the parties to such marriage a certificate thereof, which shall be furnished in blank by the officer who issues such license, setting forth the names and residence of the parties and the date of such marriage, and the county from which the license was issued, and the date of same. (Use the attached blank for this purpose.)

Section 8290. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for Solemnizing Marriage without License, or Failing to Keep a Record thereof." Any person who shall solemnize any marriage wherein the parties have not obtained a license, as provided by this chapter, or shall fail to keep a record of the solemnization of any marriage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in addition shall be subject to a civil action by the parent, guardian or other person having care or custody of the person so married, to whom services are due, wherein the recovery shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and any Recorder who shall issue a license contrary to the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a like punishment."

Every officer or person who shall fail to return a license within ninety days after the issuing of the same, or who shall make a false return thereon, or any recorder who shall willfully make a false record of any marriage license or return thereon, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the preceding part of this section.

SECTION 4728. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Illegally Solemnizing Marriages." Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage criminal in either of the parties, under the preceding provisions of this article, or having knowledge that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or where, to his knowledge any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriages, who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive any innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES.

If you are not a citizen of the United States, (or a resident of and pastor of some church in this State), besides possessing the other necessary legal qualifications, you cannot solemnize marriages, and would be liable to both fine and imprisonment for so doing. Read License carefully.

Section 8288. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Certificate of Marriage to be Given." Every person solemnizing marriages under this chapter, shall issue and deliver to the parties to such marriage a certificate thereof, which shall be furnished in blank by the officer who issues such license, setting forth the names and residence of the parties and the date of such marriage, and the county from which the license was issued, and the date of same. (Use the attached blank for this purpose.)

Section 8290. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for Solemnizing Marriage without License, or Failing to Keep a Record thereof." Any person who shall solemnize any marriage wherein the parties have not obtained a license, as provided by this chapter, or shall fail to keep a record of the solemnization of any marriage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in addition shall be subject to a civil action by the parent, guardian or other person having care or custody of the person so married, to whom services are due, wherein the recovery shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and any Recorder who shall issue a license contrary to the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a like punishment."

Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage criminal in either of the parties, under the preceding provisions of this article, or having knowledge that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or where, to his knowledge any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriages, who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive any innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES.

If you are not a citizen of the United States, (or a resident of and pastor of some church in this State), besides possessing the other necessary legal qualifications, you cannot solemnize marriages, and would be liable to both fine and imprisonment for so doing. Read License carefully.

Section 8288. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Certificate of Marriage to be Given." Every person solemnizing marriages under this chapter, shall issue and deliver to the parties to such marriage a certificate thereof, which shall be furnished in blank by the officer who issues such license, setting forth the names and residence of the parties and the date of such marriage, and the county from which the license was issued, and the date of same. (Use the attached blank for this purpose.)

Section 8290. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for Solemnizing Marriage without License, or Failing to Keep a Record thereof." Any person who shall solemnize any marriage wherein the parties have not obtained a license, as provided by this chapter, or shall fail to keep a record of the solemnization of any marriage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in addition shall be subject to a civil action by the parent, guardian or other person having care or custody of the person so married, to whom services are due, wherein the recovery shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and any Recorder who shall issue a license contrary to the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a like punishment."

SECTION 8286. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for failure to Issue, Record or Return License." If any recorder willfully neglect or refuse to issue a license to any person legally entitled thereto on application, on payment or tender of the fee provided for in the next preceding section, or shall fail or refuse to record such license with the return thereon, as herein provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. Every officer or person who shall fail to return a license within ninety days after the issuing of the same, or who shall make a false return thereon, or any recorder who shall willfully make a false record of any marriage license or return thereon, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the preceding part of this section.

SECTION 4728. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Illegally Solemnizing Marriages." Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage criminal in either of the parties, under the preceding provisions of this article, or having knowledge that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or where, to his knowledge any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriages, who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive any innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION 8286. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for failure to Issue, Record or Return License." If any recorder willfully neglect or refuse to issue a license to any person legally entitled thereto on application, on payment or tender of the fee provided for in the next preceding section, or shall fail or refuse to record such license with the return thereon, as herein provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. Every officer or person who shall fail to return a license within ninety days after the issuing of the same, or who shall make a false return thereon, or any recorder who shall willfully make a false record of any marriage license or return thereon, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the preceding part of this section.

SECTION 4728. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Illegally Solemnizing Marriages." Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage criminal in either of the parties, under the preceding provisions of this article, or having knowledge that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or where, to his knowledge any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriages, who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive any innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES.

If you are not a citizen of the United States, (or a resident of and pastor of some church in this State), besides possessing the other necessary legal qualifications, you cannot solemnize marriages, and would be liable to both fine and imprisonment for so doing. Read License carefully.

Section 8288. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Certificate of Marriage to be Given." Every person solemnizing marriages under this chapter, shall issue and deliver to the parties to such marriage a certificate thereof, which shall be furnished in blank by the officer who issues such license, setting forth the names and residence of the parties and the date of such marriage, and the county from which the license was issued, and the date of same. SECTION 8286. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for failure to Issue, Record or Return License." If any recorder willfully neglect or refuse to issue a license to any person legally entitled thereto on application, on payment or tender of the fee provided for in the next preceding section, or shall fail or refuse to record such license with the return thereon, as herein provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. Every officer or person who shall fail to return a license within ninety days after the issuing of the same, or who shall make a false return thereon, or any recorder who shall willfully make a false record of any marriage license or return thereon, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the preceding part of this section.

SECTION 4728. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Illegally Solemnizing Marriages." Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage criminal in either of the parties, under the preceding provisions of this article, or having knowledge that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or where, to his knowledge any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriages, who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive any innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES.

If you are not a citizen of the United States, (or a resident of and pastor of some church in this State), besides possessing the other necessary legal qualifications, you cannot solemnize marriages, and would be liable to both fine and imprisonment for so doing. Read License carefully.

Section 8288. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Certificate of Marriage to be Given." Every person solemnizing marriages under this chapter, shall issue and deliver to the parties to such marriage a certificate thereof, which shall be furnished in blank by the officer who issues such license, setting forth the names and residence of the parties and the date of such marriage, and the county from which the license was issued, and the date of same. (Use the attached blank for this purpose.)

Section 8290. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for Solemnizing Marriage without License, or Failing to Keep a Record thereof." Any person who shall solemnize any marriage wherein the parties have not obtained a license, as provided by this chapter, or shall fail to keep a record of the solemnization of any marriage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in addition shall be subject to a civil action by the parent, guardian or other person having care or custody of the person so married, to whom services are due, wherein the recovery shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and any Recorder who shall issue a license contrary to the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a like punishment."

SECTION 8286. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for failure to Issue, Record or Return License." If any recorder willfully neglect or refuse to issue a license to any person legally entitled thereto on application, on payment or tender of the fee provided for in the next preceding section, or shall fail or refuse to record such license with the return thereon, as herein provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. Every officer or person who shall fail to return a license within ninety days after the issuing of the same, or who shall make a false return thereon, or any recorder who shall willfully make a false record of any marriage license or return thereon, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the preceding part of this section.

SECTION 4728. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Illegally Solemnizing Marriages." Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage criminal in either of the parties, under the preceding provisions of this article, or having knowledge that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or where, to his knowledge any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriages, who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive any innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES.

If you are not a citizen of the United States, (or a resident of and pastor of some church in this State), besides possessing the other necessary legal qualifications, you cannot solemnize marriages, and would be liable to both fine and imprisonment for so doing. Read License carefully.

Section 8288. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Certificate of Marriage to be Given." Every person solemnizing marriages under this chapter, shall issue and deliver to the parties to such marriage a certificate thereof, which shall be furnished in blank by the officer who issues such license, setting forth the names and residence of the parties and the date of such marriage, and the county from which the license was issued, and the date of same. (Use the attached blank for this purpose.)

Section 8290. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for Solemnizing Marriage without License, or Failing to Keep a Record thereof." Any person who shall solemnize any marriage wherein the parties have not obtained a license, as provided by this chapter, or shall fail to keep a record of the solemnization of any marriage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in addition shall be subject to a civil action by the parent, guardian or other person having care or custody of the person so married, to whom services are due, wherein the recovery shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and any Recorder who shall issue a license contrary to the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a like punishment."

SECTION 8286. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for failure to Issue, Record or Return License." If any recorder willfully neglect or refuse to issue a license to any person legally entitled thereto on application, on payment or tender of the fee provided for in the next preceding section, or shall fail or refuse to record such license with the return thereon, as herein provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. Every officer or person who shall fail to return a license within ninety days after the issuing of the same, or who shall make a false return thereon, or any recorder who shall willfully make a false record of any marriage license or return thereon, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the preceding part of this section.

SECTION 4728. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Illegally Solemnizing Marriages." Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage criminal in either of the parties, under the preceding provisions of this article, or having knowledge that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or where, to his knowledge any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriages, who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive any innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES.

If you are not a citizen of the United States, (or a resident of and pastor of some church in this State), besides possessing the other necessary legal qualifications, you cannot solemnize marriages, and would be liable to both fine and imprisonment for so doing. Read License carefully.

Section 8288. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Certificate of Marriage to be Given." Every person solemnizing marriages under this chapter, shall issue and deliver to the parties to such marriage a certificate thereof, which shall be furnished in blank by the officer who issues such license, setting forth the names and residence of the parties and the date of such marriage, and the county from which the license was issued, and the date of same. (Use the attached blank for this purpose.)

Section 8290. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for Solemnizing Marriage without License, or Failing to Keep a Record thereof." Any person who shall solemnize any marriage wherein the parties have not obtained a license, as provided by this chapter, or shall fail to keep a record of the solemnization of any marriage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in addition shall be subject to a civil action by the parent, guardian or other person having care or custody of the person so married, to whom services are due, wherein the recovery shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and any Recorder who shall issue a license contrary to the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a like punishment."

Every officer or person who shall fail to return a license within ninety days after the issuing of the same, or who shall make a false return thereon, or any recorder who shall willfully make a false record of any marriage license or return thereon, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the preceding part of this section.

SECTION 4728. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Illegally Solemnizing Marriages." Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage criminal in either of the parties, under the preceding provisions of this article, or having knowledge that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or where, to his knowledge any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriages, who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive any innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES.

If you are not a citizen of the United States, (or a resident of and pastor of some church in this State), besides possessing the other necessary legal qualifications, you cannot solemnize marriages, and would be liable to both fine and imprisonment for so doing. Read License carefully.

Section 8288. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Certificate of Marriage to be Given." Every person solemnizing marriages under this chapter, shall issue and deliver to the parties to such marriage a certificate thereof, which shall be furnished in blank by the officer who issues such license, setting forth the names and residence of the parties and the date of such marriage, and the county from which the license was issued, and the date of same. (Use the attached blank for this purpose.)

Section 8290. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for Solemnizing Marriage without License, or Failing to Keep a Record thereof." Any person who shall solemnize any marriage wherein the parties have not obtained a license, as provided by this chapter, or shall fail to keep a record of the solemnization of any marriage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in addition shall be subject to a civil action by the parent, guardian or other person having care or custody of the person so married, to whom services are due, wherein the recovery shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and any Recorder who shall issue a license contrary to the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a like punishment."

Every officer or person who shall fail to return a license within ninety days after the issuing of the same, or who shall make a false return thereon, or any recorder who shall willfully make a false record of any marriage license or return thereon, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the preceding part of this section.

SECTION 4728. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Illegally Solemnizing Marriages." Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage criminal in either of the parties, under the preceding provisions of this article, or having knowledge that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or where, to his knowledge any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriages, who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive any innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES.

If you are not a citizen of the United States, (or a resident of and pastor of some church in this State), besides possessing the other necessary legal qualifications, you cannot solemnize marriages, and would be liable to both fine and imprisonment for so doing. Read License carefully.

Section 8288. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Certificate of Marriage to be Given." Every person solemnizing marriages under this chapter, shall issue and deliver to the parties to such marriage a certificate thereof, which shall be furnished in blank by the officer who issues such license, setting forth the names and residence of the parties and the date of such marriage, and the county from which the license was issued, and the date of same. (Use the attached blank for this purpose.)

Section 8290. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for Solemnizing Marriage without License, or Failing to Keep a Record thereof." Any person who shall solemnize any marriage wherein the parties have not obtained a license, as provided by this chapter, or shall fail to keep a record of the solemnization of any marriage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in addition shall be subject to a civil action by the parent, guardian or other person having care or custody of the person so married, to whom services are due, wherein the recovery shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and any Recorder who shall issue a license contrary to the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a like punishment."

Every officer or person who shall fail to return a license within ninety days after the issuing of the same, or who shall make a false return thereon, or any recorder who shall willfully make a false record of any marriage license or return thereon, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the preceding part of this section.

SECTION 4728. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Illegally Solemnizing Marriages." Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage criminal in either of the parties, under the preceding provisions of this article, or having knowledge that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or where, to his knowledge any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriages, who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive any innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES.

If you are not a citizen of the United States, (or a resident of and pastor of some church in this State), besides possessing the other necessary legal qualifications, you cannot solemnize marriages, and would be liable to both fine and imprisonment for so doing. Read License carefully.

Section 8288. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Certificate of Marriage to be Given." Every person solemnizing marriages under this chapter, shall issue and deliver to the parties to such marriage a certificate thereof, which shall be furnished in blank by the officer who issues such license, setting forth the names and residence of the parties and the date of such marriage, and the county from which the license was issued, and the date of same. (Use the attached blank for this purpose.)

Section 8290. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for Solemnizing Marriage without License, or Failing to Keep a Record thereof." Any person who shall solemnize any marriage wherein the parties have not obtained a license, as provided by this chapter, or shall fail to keep a record of the solemnization of any marriage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in addition shall be subject to a civil action by the parent, guardian or other person having care or custody of the person so married, to whom services are due, wherein the recovery shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and any Recorder who shall issue a license contrary to the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a like punishment."

SECTION 8286. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for failure to Issue, Record or Return License." If any recorder willfully neglect or refuse to issue a license to any person legally entitled thereto on application, on payment or tender of the fee provided for in the next preceding section, or shall fail or refuse to record such license with the return thereon, as herein provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. Every officer or person who shall fail to return a license within ninety days after the issuing of the same, or who shall make a false return thereon, or any recorder who shall willfully make a false record of any marriage license or return thereon, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the preceding part of this section.

SECTION 4728. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Illegally Solemnizing Marriages." Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage criminal in either of the parties, under the preceding provisions of this article, or having knowledge that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or where, to his knowledge any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriages, who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive any innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES.

If you are not a citizen of the United States, (or a resident of and pastor of some church in this State), besides possessing the other necessary legal qualifications, you cannot solemnize marriages, and would be liable to both fine and imprisonment for so doing. Read License carefully.

Section 8288. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Certificate of Marriage to be Given." Every person solemnizing marriages under this chapter, shall issue and deliver to the parties to such marriage a certificate thereof, which shall be furnished in blank by the officer who issues such license, setting forth the names and residence of the parties and the date of such marriage, and the county from which the license was issued, and the date of same. (Use the attached blank for this purpose.)

Section 8290. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for Solemnizing Marriage without License, or Failing to Keep a Record thereof." Any person who shall solemnize any marriage wherein the parties have not obtained a license, as provided by this chapter, or shall fail to keep a record of the solemnization of any marriage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in addition shall be subject to a civil action by the parent, guardian or other person having care or custody of the person so married, to whom services are due, wherein the recovery shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and any Recorder who shall issue a license contrary to the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a like punishment."

SECTION 8286. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for failure to Issue, Record or Return License." If any recorder willfully neglect or refuse to issue a license to any person legally entitled thereto on application, on payment or tender of the fee provided for in the next preceding section, or shall fail or refuse to record such license with the return thereon, as herein provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. Every officer or person who shall fail to return a license within ninety days after the issuing of the same, or who shall make a false return thereon, or any recorder who shall willfully make a false record of any marriage license or return thereon, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the preceding part of this section.

SECTION 4728. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Illegally Solemnizing Marriages." Every person who shall solemnize any marriage, having knowledge of any fact which renders such marriage criminal in either of the parties, under the preceding provisions of this article, or having knowledge that either of the parties shall be under the age of legal consent, or where, to his knowledge any other legal impediment exists to such marriage, and every person not authorized by law to solemnize marriages, who shall falsely represent that he is so authorized, and who, by any pretended marriage ceremony which he may perform, shall deceive any innocent person or persons into the belief that they have been legally married, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not less than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

NOTICE TO PERSONS SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES.

If you are not a citizen of the United States, (or a resident of and pastor of some church in this State), besides possessing the other necessary legal qualifications, you cannot solemnize marriages, and would be liable to both fine and imprisonment for so doing. Read License carefully.

Section 8288. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Certificate of Marriage to be Given." Every person solemnizing marriages under this chapter, shall issue and deliver to the parties to such marriage a certificate thereof, which shall be furnished in blank by the officer who issues such license, setting forth the names and residence of the parties and the date of such marriage, and the county from which the license was issued, and the date of same. (Use the attached blank for this purpose.)

Section 8290. Revised Statutes, 1909. "Penalty for Solemnizing Marriage without License, or Failing to Keep a Record thereof." Any person who shall solemnize any marriage wherein the parties have not obtained a license, as provided by this chapter, or shall fail to keep a record of the solemnization of any marriage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in addition shall be subject to a civil action by the parent, guardian or other person having care or custody of the person so married, to whom services are due, wherein the recovery shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and any Recorder who shall issue a license contrary to the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a like punishment."
