LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF CHARLES G. MARTIN

I, Charles G. Martin, of the City of Springfield, Missouri, desiring to make proper disposition by will of the property that I may own or have an interest in at the time of my death, while I am strong in body and sane in mind, do hereby make, publish and declare the following to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and cancelling all other and former wills by me at any time made.

ARTICLE I: I desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate. It is my will that all inheritance and estate taxes be paid out of my estate, even though the same might be charged and collected from the devisees herein.

ARTICLE II: I will and devise to my wife, Louise C. Martin, to have and to hold during her natural life, my building in Springfield, Missouri, known as the Martin Building, and the property upon which it is located; the said property being situated on the Northeast corner of Robberson Avenue and McDaniel Street and having a frontage of One hundred ten feet on McDaniel Street and running back one hundred ten feet on Robberson Avenue.

After the death of my said wife the said property shall go to the surviving trustees hereinafter named, to be held by them as such trustees under the same terms and provisions and for the use and benefit of the same beneficiaries, as herein provided for other property which is devised to said trustees.

It is my will that said property be not sold during the life time of my said wife, but after the death of my said wife, the said trustees shall have the right and power to sell and convey said property when they deem it advisable so to do and when a fair price can be obtained therefor. The proceeds to be invested in and the same manner as herein provided for other investments.

ARTICLE III: I will and devise all the rest, residue and remainder of my property, real, personal and mixed, or whatsoever kind and wheresoever situated, to my wife, Louise C. Martin, and the Union National Bank of Springfield, Missouri, and to the survivor thereof, in trust, however, for the use and benefit of the persons hereinafter named in the proportions and in the amounts hereinafter provided and according to the provisions hereinafter set forth, and the said Louise C. Martin and Union National Bank, and the survivor thereof, shall hold said property as joint trustees and shall handle and distribute the same and the income therefrom in accordance with the terms and provisions of this will.

ARTICLE IV: The said trustees herein named, or the survivor thereof, shall hold said property as such trustees and shall have the right, power and authority, subject to the restrictions of this will, to sell and convey the property of said estate, both real and personal, and make proper assignments or deeds of conveyance of the same and shall have the power to lease any real property and to do all things necessary to protect the property and to get the best income therefrom and shall pay all expenses, including taxes, insurance and all other costs and expenses of executing this trust; provided, however, that whenever property is sold, that the proceeds therefrom shall be invested in United States or State bonds or other good State or Government securities as near tax free as may be, and this power of selling and investing and re-selling and re-investing shall be a continuing power during the period of this trust.

It is my desire that my interest or stock in the Martin Bros. Piano Company and Martin Finance Company be disposed of by said trustees as soon as the same can conveniently be done when a fair and reasonable price can be obtained therefor, the said sale to be at the discretion of said trustees but with the direction, however, that I do not desire my interest and stock in said two corporations to be held as a continuing investment.

ARTICLE V: I have some stock in other good reputable companies, the trustees can easily determine what companies these companies are, and the trustees are directed to hold this stock until such time as in their discretion they deem it advisable that the same be sold and the proceeds invested as hereinbefore provided.

ARTICLE VI: Out of the net proceeds from the property held in trust by said trustees, said trustees shall pay to my brother Frank Martin, of Bostic, North Carolina, during his life time the sum of One Hundred Dollars every three months, and shall likewise pay to my brother Broadus Martin of Bostic, North Carolina, during his life time the sum of One Hundred Dollars every three months. Said payments under this article shall be made on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year.

ARTICLE VII: The remaining net income from said property for the previous year shall in the next following year be paid in equal parts to my surviving children; said payments to be made quarterly on the first days of January, April, July and October of each year and this shall continue yearly so that the net income aforesaid for one year shall be paid as aforesaid during the subsequent year; provided, however, if any of the said children are minors and their mother is living, such payments shall be made to the mother for the use and benefit of the minor children; if the mother is not living then the payment to be made to the guardian or curator of such children who are minors; the payments shall be made direct to such children as are of age.

ARTICLE VIII: It is my will that the corpus of said estate shall go to my surviving children in equal parts, that is the children shall share and share alike in the principal or corpus of said estate held by such trustees, subject to the provisions hereinafter set out covering the issue of any deceased child or the widow of any deceased son, but no child shall receive his or her part of such estate until such child reaches the age of thirty-five years and as such child reaches the age of thirty-five years, then the trustees shall pay over to said child his or her portion of said estate, provided, however, that if at any time of such payment my brothers, Frank and Broadus, or either of them should be living, then the trustees shall hold back a sufficient part of the estate otherwise payable to the child reaching the age of thirty-five years so that the income therefrom will pay his or her proportion of any income that is to be paid to my brothers, Frank and Broadus. Subsequent payments of the part so held back shall be made if the same is not needed and additional payments may be made to such child in the event of the subsequent death of any child without issue when such deceased child's estate is still being held in trust shall result in an additional amount being payable to any child that has already received the major portion of his or her estate.

It is my will that wherever I have provided that either income or principal shall go to my children or my surviving children, that they shall share and share alike therein, and in the event any child should die before reaching thirty-five years of age, leaving issue living at the time any payment of income or principal is to be made, then such living issue shall be paid the amount of income or principal that would otherwise have been paid to such child of mine had he or she been living at the time.

In the event any child of mine dies without leaving issue living at the time such payment of income or principal would have been made to such child had such child been living, then the portion that would have gone to such child, shall go to my surviving children; provided, however, that no part of the principal shall be paid or distributed to any surviving child until such child reaches thirty-five years of age; and provided further that should a son of mine die before reaching thirty-five years of age leaving no living issue to whom payment can be made at the time payment is to be made, but leaving a widow living at the time payment is to be made, then there shall be paid to such widow one-half of the amount of income or principal that otherwise would have been paid to such son had he been living at the time; the other half shall go to my surviving children; the time that any payment shall be made under the provisions of this will is to be the controlling date in determining to whom such payment shall be made and the living child of any deceased child of mine who shall be living when such deceased child would have reached the age of thirty-five years had the deceased child lived, shall be paid the proportion of the principal that otherwise would have been paid to such deceased child if he or she had lived; that the payment or principal to the widow of any son dying without issue, shall be made on the date when such son would have reached the age of thirty-five years had he lived; that upon the payment of any part of the principal of said estate to any person entitled thereto the payment of income to such person shall terminate.

ARTICLE VIII: In making payments or distributions of the corpus of the estate, it shall not be necessary for the trustees to pay over any or all of the portion in money, but any stock or securities held by the trustees may be divided in kind so that the person to whom payment or distribution is made shall have received the proper portion of said estate either in money or in stock or securities as may be determined by the trustees and the decision of the trustees made in good faith shall be final and binding on all parties.

It is my will that none of my said children, nor the other beneficiaries of said trust, shall have the right or power to sell, assign or pledge the income from said estate or the corpus of said estate, or any interest that they may have in said estate, either principal or income, by way of anticipation previous to the payment thereof to each of said beneficiaries and such interest in said estate or income therefrom shall not be in any way liable for the debts of said persons herein named as beneficiaries prior to the payment thereof to said persons respectively, and the said trustees shall take the personal receipt for any payments made to such persons respectively, or the receipt of the mother or guardian of any minor child.

Both the real estate and personal property other than the real estate devised to my wife shall be administered upon by the executors of the estate, that is to say the executors shall have the right to collect any rents on any real estate and otherwise look after the same, paying taxes, etc., until the final settlement of the estate in the Probate Court, when all the property devised to the trustees herein shall be delivered to the trustees who shall thereafter hold and handle the same as trustees in accordance with this will. The first bond given by the trustees shall be approved by the Probate Court. Said trustees shall thereafter make annual settlement in the Circuit Court, which court shall thereafter approve their bond.

ARTICLE IX. It is my will that my wife, Louise C. Martin and the Union National Bank shall be joint executors of this will, but my wife shall not be required to give bond either as executrix or trustee. The other executor and trustee shall be required to give a bond as such executor and later as such trustee in the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars with some reliable bonding company as surety, the premium on the bond to be paid out of the estate.

CODICIL TO WILL OF CHARLES G. MARTIN

I, Charles G. Martin of Springfield, Missouri, declare this to be a codicil to my will, which bears date the 11th day of July, 1927, and is witnessed by L. Gordon Bennett, H.N. Dickinson and B.L. Willyard.

Whereas, I have already spent more for the support, maintenance, education and benefit of my older children than I have for my daughters Eleanor and Virginia, now, with a view of placing said two younger children on the same footing as my older children, I give and bequeath to the trustees provided for and named in my said will for the use and benefit of my said two children, viz: Eleanor Martin and Virginia Martin, the sum of Four Thousand ($4,000.00) Dollars each, making Eight Thousand ($8,000.00) Dollars for the two. I further will and direct that said trustees, or trustee for the time being, shall have an absolute discretion as to the application of said monies, and every part thereof, for or toward the advancement, maintenance and education, or otherwise for the benefit, of said two children. I will and direct that these legacies given to my said two daughters, Eleanor and Virginia, shall have priority over the residuary clause designated as "Article III" in my said will.

In all other respects, I confirm my said will.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 25 day of April, 1936.

C.G. Martin

Martin as a codicil to his will, bearing date the 11th day of July, 1927, in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other, hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

ARTICLE X

None of the aforementioned bequests shall bear interest. I further give, devise and bequeath to my said secretary, Edna P. Steele, my undivided one-half interest in the following described properties, and direct that said interest and title pass to said Edna P. Steele in fee as her sole property free and clear of all encumbrances, and not to be or form a part of the Trust Estate hereinafter created. Said properties are described as follows:

1. 401 Montgall Avenue, Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri, legally described as follows: North Thirty-five (N.35) feet of Lot Thirteen (13), in Oak Grove Addition, and Lots Thirteen (13) and Fourteen (14) in Block Fourteen (Blk. 14) in Holyrood Addition, both being additions in Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri, same being free and clear of all encumbrances.

The provision herein made for my secretary, Edna P. Steele, are made as a merited reward, and in remembrance and appreciation of her many years of constant, faithful and honest service, wherein she has displayed the closest application and the highest form of integrity in the handling of my affairs.

ARTICLE XII

All the rest, residue and remainder of my property, real, personal or mixed, of which I may die seized or possessed or over which I may have testamentary control or to which I may in any way be entitled at the time of my decease, of whatsoever the same may consist or wheresoever situated (which property is hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Trust Estate") I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Etta L. Moulton, to my beloved son, Cleveland F. Moulton, Jr., and to my faithful secretary, Edna P. Steele, as Trustees (who shall serve as such without fee or salary), and to their successor or successors in trust for the uses and purposes hereinafter stated:

(1) The Trustees, commencing from the date of my death, shall pay monthly to my wife, Etta L. Moulton, one-half of the net income derived from the said Trust Estate, or Two Hundred Dollars ($250.00) per month, whichever is the larger sum as long as my said wife shall live. Whenever one-half of the net income derived from the Trust Estate is less than Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) per month, the difference shall be paid out of the principal and shall later be replaced out of any surplus income during that calendar year, but not thereafter. The provisions herein made for my wife, Etta L. Moulton, shall be in lieu of all dower and marital rights which she may have in my estate at the time of my death, not including, however, such statutory rights as my said wife shall have for maintenance during the period of the administration of my estate. Upon the death of my wife, or if she should not survive me, her share of the income from the Trust Estate provided for her by this Article shall pass to my son, Cleveland F. Moulton, Jr., and to Edna P. Steele, share and share alike, as long as they shall live, and upon the death of either his or her said share of income shall pass to the survivor.

(2) The Trustees, commencing from the date of my death, shall pay monthly to my secretary, Edna P. Steele, one-fourth of the net income derived from the said Trust Estate or Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) per month, whichever is the larger sum, so long as my said secretary shall live. Whenever one-fourth of the net monthly income derived from the said Trust Estate is less than Two Hundred Dollars ($250.00) per month, the difference shall be paid out of the principal and shall later be replaced out of any surplus income during that calendar year, but not thereafter. Upon the death of said Edna P. Steele, or if she should predecease me, her share of the income from the Trust Estate provided for by this Article shall pass to my son, Cleveland F. Moulton, Jr., and to my wife, Etta L. Moulton, share and share alike, as long as they shall live, and upon the death of either of his or her said share of income shall pass to the survivor.

(3) The Trustees, commencing from the date of my death, shall pay monthly to my son, Cleveland F. Moulton, Jr., one-fourth of the net income derived from the said Trust Estate, or Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) per month, whichever is the larger sum, as long as my said son shall live. Whenever one-fourth of the net monthly income derived from said Trust Estate is less than Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) per month, the difference shall be paid out of the principal and shall later be replaced out of any surplus income during that calendar year, but not thereafter.

Upon the death of my said son, Cleveland F. Moulton, Jr., or if he shall not survive me, if John Carroll Moulton shall be his only surviving child, the said John Carroll Moulton shall be paid the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month out of the income provided for in the last preceding paragraph, and any balance over and above the payment of said Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month shall be added annually to the principal by the Trustees and invested in accordance with the general powers granted herein for the investment of the principal sum. If Cleveland F. Moulton, Jr., is not alive when John Carroll Moulton reaches the age of thirty (30) years, or shall thereafter cease to be a Trustee due to death or any other cause, then John Carroll Moulton shall become a Joint Trustee with the surviving individual Trustees, or their successors. If there are no individual Trustees surviving at the time John Carroll Moulton attains the age of thirty (30) years, and the Commerce Trust Company of Kansas City, Missouri, has been appointed Trustee as hereinafter provided, then John Carroll Moulton shall be a joint Trustee with the said Commerce Trust Company during his lifetime. If John Carroll Moulton becomes a Trustee and at said time there are two of the originally-named Trustees acting, then John Carroll Moulton shall receive one-fourth of the net income derived from said Trust Estate, or Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) per month, whichever is the larger sum, as long as he is a Co-Trustee with two of said original Trustees. If there is only one of the original Trustees acting at the time said John Carroll Moulton becomes a Trustee, or the Commerce Trust Company or its successor is a Trustee, he shall receive one-half of the net income derived from said Trust Estate or Two Hundred Dollars ($200.) per month, whichever is the larger sum, as long as he shall live.

Whenever one-fourth, or one-half, of the net income derived from said Trust Estate under either of the last two contingencies is less than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) per month, the differences shall be paid out of the principal which later shall be replaced out of any surplus income received by said Trust Estate during that calendar year, but not thereafter. Provided John Carroll Moulton lives to be thirty (30) years of age, and he has a child or children which survives him at the time of his death, then the Trustees shall pay annually to such child or children one-half of the net income from said Trust Estate for a period of twenty-one (21) years from the date of his death or during that part of such twenty-one (21) years that said child or children shall survive. However, if John Carroll Moulton has no child or children living at the time of his death, then at the time of his death, or, if he has a child or children, then at the end of twenty-one (21) years after his death or at the time during said twenty-one (21) years that such child or children shall cease to survive, the payments shall cease and the income shall revert to the Estate Trust Fund.

(4) If at any time or from time to time during the existence of the said Trust Estate, by reason of illness, accident or other misfortune, or should any emergency arise, or if any reason whatsoever in the absolute discretion of the Trustees, further funds should be needed for the comfortable maintenance or support of Etta L. Moulton, Edna P. Steele, or Cleveland F. Moulton, Jr., if then receiving or then entitled to receive income from said Trust Estate, the Trustees are authorized to pay to or for such person, out of the principal of said Trust Estate, such further sum or sums not exceeding the aggregate sum of Three Thousand, Six Hundred Dollars ($3,600.00) in any calendar year, as the Trustees in the exercise of their absolute discretion may deem proper; and the judgment of the Trustees in this respect shall be final and conclusive upon all parties. Should any discretionary payment under the provisions of this paragraph be made to my said son, Cleveland F. Moulton, Jr., the amount or amount so paid shall not be charged against the share of the said Trust Estate which may be distributable to the issue of my said son, Cleveland F. Moulton, Jr., as above provided. If, at any time during the existence of said Trust Estate, in the judgment of the original Trustees herein named or their successors they deem it necessary and advisable to make an advancement to John Carroll Moulton for the purposes of education, sickness of himself or his family, or entering a business or profession, or if any emergency arises, said Trustees are hereby authorized to advance a sum or sums aggregating Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), which shall be a loan and which shall be repaid to said Trust Estate at the rate of ten per cent (10%) thereof annually by deducting from the annual income due said John Carroll Moulton the amount of such payments until such entire sum so loaned has been repaid. Such advancements shall not bear interest.

All payments of income to Trustees as provided for in this instrument, and all amounts given to beneficiaries, shall be their sole individual property and not subject to be accounted for by any of them. And none of the first three original Trustees named shall be required to render any accounting on such estate or Trust Fund to anyone, unless they are so required by law, or unless they may jointly so desire.

(5) Each beneficiary under the Trust Estate created, as set out in this section, is hereby restrained from and shall be without privilege or power to sell, transfer, pledge, mortgage, hypothecate, alienate, anticipate, or in any manner encumber or affect his or her beneficial right, title, interest or estate in or to the net income or monthly payment of the Trust hereby created; and such interest or estate shall not be subject to his or her liabilities, judgment or other legal process, bankruptcy proceedings, or claims of creditors or others, and shall not pass or descend by operation of law.

(6) Upon the death or disability of any of the above-named Trustees, or if any of the above-named Trustees shall refuse to act, or if his or her whereabouts should be unknown, then the remaining Trustee or Trustees shall have full power to act, and a majority of the Trustees at any time acting hereunder may make decisions on behalf of the Trustees collectively, and any action taken by a majority of the Trustees shall be final and conclusive upon all parties; provided, that no Trustees who shall not concur in any action taken by a majority of the Trustees shall be liable for any loss resulting therefrom. In the event of the temporary absence from Kansas City of one or more of the above-named Trustees, or in the event of the temporary disability of one or more of said Trustees, the remaining Trustee or Trustees shall during such temporary period of absence or disability be authorized to carry on the usual transactions of business, provided they are empowered with power of attorney so to do by the Trustees or Trustees who are temporarily absent or disabled. If my son, Cleveland F. Moulton, Jr., and my secretary, Edna P. Steele, shall both be prevented from acting as Trustees by reason of their death, disability, disappearance, or refusal to act, even though my wife, Etta L. Moulton, shall then be living, the Commerce Trust Company of Kansas City, Missouri, a corporation, or its successor, and John Carroll Moulton, if he at said time is thirty (30) years of age, shall then and in that event be substituted as Trustees and shall act as successors in trust. If the disability, disappearance or refusal to act on the part of my said son or my said secretary, or both, shall be temporary only, he, she, or they shall be reinstated as Trustees or Trustees upon termination of such disability, or reappearance or assertion in writing of willingness to act.

ARTICLE XIII

(1) The Trustee or Trustees of said Trust Estate shall make payment of all benefits hereinbefore provided, and said benefits shall be a first charge against said Trust Estate. Upon the death of the survivor of my wife, Etta L. Moulton, my son, Cleveland F. Moulton, Jr., and my secretary, Edna P. Steele, and John Carroll Moulton, provided he has attained the age of thirty (30) years, it is my will that one Trust Estate (subject to all the foregoing provisions of this will contained and especially subject to the provision for the child or children of John Carroll Moulton) shall be devoted to charitable purposes as hereinafter set out, as a permanent, perpetual fund in honor and memory of my father, the late Judge Cleveland F. Moulton, I; said trust fund to be designated and known as "The Judge Cleveland F. Moulton Christmas Poor Fund Trust", the corpus of said trust to consist of the Trust Estate heretofore set out subject to the portion to the child or children of my son as hereinbefore provided. The permanent beneficiaries of said charitable trust shall consist of the needy poor of Jackson County and Bates County, Missouri, as hereinafter more fully described and set forth.

(2) The Trustees shall keep complete and correct books of account under the name of "The Judge Cleveland F. Moulton Christmas Poor Fund Trust" showing all transfers of every kind pertaining to the trust. It shall make to the Attorney General of the State of Missouri at least annually a detailed statement in writing of the assets, income, rents and disbursements of said Trust Fund, and said statement shall be at all reasonable times open to the inspection of the public.

(3) It is my will that the corpus, or principal, of the Trust Estate be kept intact, or made permanent, and that only the net income as hereinafter defined be passed to the permanent beneficiaries for their use as hereinafter set forth. This Trust shall be held and administered perpetually as a purely charitable trust, and I hereby declare that it is my intention that the permanent trust shall be a purely charitable trust. The principal of the permanent trust shall not be diminished for any charitable purpose, but only the net income derived from the permanent trust shall be used for charitable purposes as in this Article provided.

(4) It is my will that the net income (as hereinafter defined) of said Trust Estate be paid to the permanent beneficiaries annually in the week preceding Christmas of each year, in Jackson County through one or more non-sectarian organizations, associations or committees organized for the purpose of making distribution to the poor in need to be selected by the Trustee from time to time in its discretion, in Bates County through a committee composed of the active ministers, or as many of them as will serve, of the city of Adrian, Bates County, Missouri. Such organization, association or committee (whether one or more) shall make a complete accounting to the Trustee of the disposition of funds provided it or them hereunder by Trustee, and shall disburse funds subject to the following conditions:

(a) "Beneficiaries," as used herein, shall mean any person or persons, be they the head of a family or otherwise, who at the time of making disbursements are poor, destitute, and in need of provisions for the comfort of their bodies; but the qualification and selection of such needy poor shall be in the sole and absolute discretion of the Trustee, or in the organization which it selects as set forth heretofore.

(b) Disbursements may be made in money, food, clothing, fuel, eye glasses, teeth, cost of dental care, or any and all of them, as the Trustee may direct; but in any event said beneficiaries shall receive the whole of the fund provided for said purpose, but not to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50.00) to any one person, in anyone year.

(c) I direct that one-fourth of the fund available be distributed as herein provided to beneficiaries located in Bates County, Missouri. If the income from the trust should increase so that in the opinion and discretion of the Trustee there are not in a given year in Bates County a sufficient number of poor persons to qualify as beneficiaries as above described, the Trustee may reduce the proportion of the available fund to be distributed to beneficiaries in Bates County to less than one-fourth.

(d) I direct that three-fourths of the fund available and the remainder thereof, if in excess of three-fourths, be distributed as herein provided to beneficiaries located in Jackson County, Missouri.

(5) The Trustee shall use diligence and good faith in its selection of organizations, associations and committees to make disbursements, but shall not be liable for the failure of any organization, association, or committee so selected to make disbursements pursuant to the foregoing conditions.

ARTICLE XIV

(1) The net income derived from the Trust Estate or from any part thereof shall be the income left after deducting all charges, disbursements and expenditures authorized hereunder or by law in connection with the administration of the Trust Estate, including a reasonable compensation to the corporate Trustee for its services, said compensation and the payment thereof to be governed and regulated by the then prevailing practice. No increase in value or capital gain shall be treated as income. Any respective net income or monthly payment accrued or accumulated and undistributed at the termination of any estate or interest in the Trust Estate shall be treated as income to the next eventual estate or interest. Subject to the foregoing, the Trustee or Trustees may allocate or apportion between principal and income, in good faith, in their discretion.

(2) The Trustee or Trustees shall keep accurate books of account of all transactions pertaining to the Trust Estate, showing all disbursements and charges (if any) for services of the Trustee or Trustees hereunder, receipts of principal and income, and all investments and changes of investments. These books shall be open at all reasonable times for inspection by the beneficiaries (other than the "permanent beneficiaries") of the Trust hereunder then having vested rights to participate in the net income or principal. The Trustee or Trustees upon request, but not more frequently than semi-annually, shall render to such beneficiaries (other than "permanent beneficiaries") of the Trust as are then entitled to receive distributions of net income hereunder, statements reflecting the then actual condition of the Trust Estate, showing all receipts, disbursements of income and principal, and all changes of investments since the last previous report, and investments then held as part of the Trust Estate.

(3) Under no circumstance whatsoever shall the said corporate Trustee, or its successor, be authorized or empowered at any time, directly or indirectly, to purchase as investment for the Trust Estate any bonds, mortgages, securities, or investments of any kind from any mortgage or bond department operated by the said Trustee, or from any subsidiary corporation controlled or operated by the said Trustee. No sale of assets of said Trust Estate shall be made directly or indirectly to the Trustee of any officer, agent, servant or employee of Trustee.

(4) The Commerce Trust Company of Kansas City, Missouri, as Trustee, or its successor, and any Trustee other than the individual Trustees first above named, may charge reasonable fees for its services as Trustee of the Trust Estate, and may allocate such fees either to principal or income, or both, as it deems just.

ARTICLE XV

The Trustee or Trustees of the Trust herein created, both individual and corporate, shall have all the powers generally conferred upon Trustees by law, and without limiting the same, but in furtherance thereof and in addition thereto shall be, and are hereby, authorized and empowered to take charge of the said Trust Estate, and to have the management and control of all the property of every kind and nature constituting said Trust Estate, and may continue, conduct and carry on for such length of time as they shall deem proper any business owned or being carried on by me at the time of my decease. They may hold, manage, operate, maintain and control the property constituting my estate, and every part thereof, according to the judgment and discretion of the Trustee or Trustees. So long as any of such property is in the possession or control of the Trustee or Trustees, they shall have full power and authority to:

(1) They may in their discretion, and for such length of time as they deem advisable, retain and continue to hold indefinitely as investments any stocks, bonds and/or any property, be it personal, real or mixed, owned by me at my decease, wherever situated, or other investments belonging to me at my death, regardless of whether the Trustee or Trustees would or could have purchased the same as Trustee, or any property coming to it or them by or in lieu of foreclosure, or through complete or partial liquidation of any corporation, or as a result of any adjustment of accounts or arrearages, or obtained upon the transfer of the trusteeship, and without being under any duty either to convert or diversify the same, and whether or not the same is productive of income.

(2) They shall pay all debts, expenses and liabilities incurred by them in the management and control or handling of said Trust Estate.

(3) They may rent, lease, pledge or mortgage the Trust Estate, or any part thereof, for a period of ninety-nine years or less, at such time and on such terms and conditions as they think proper, when and as often as the Trustees in their judgment may deem best.

(4) They may sell at public or private sale, for cash or upon deferred payments, or partly for cash and partly on deferred payments, and upon such terms and conditions as they shall deem proper, or exchange for other property, all or any part of the Trust Estate, whether real, personal or mixed; and no purchase at any sale made by the Trustees shall be bound to inquire into the expediency, propriety and necessity or validity of any such sale, to see to, or be liable for, the application of the purchase money arising therefrom.

(5) They may make, execute and deliver all deeds, deeds of trust, mortgages, leases, rentals agreements, contracts of sale, assignments, notes, checks, endorsements, consents, or give collateral security and any and all other instruments necessary or convenient on the Trust Estate property in executing any power conferred upon the Trustee or Trustees by this instrument or to protect any part of the Trust Estate.

(6) They may purchase at any sheriff's sale, or at any other sale, public or private, judicial or otherwise, any real estate or leasehold upon which they may have an interest as Trustee or Trustee hereunder, or hold a mortgage, deed of trust, lien or other encumbrance.

(7) They may improve trust property and erect improvements on real estate. They may employ agents or an attorney to take charge or care of real estate or other property, or otherwise, for the benefit of the Trust Estate.

(8) They may amortize premiums or accumulate discounts or not on any securities, whether original or otherwise, and shall not be liable for any loss resulting from depreciation, sacrifice under foreclosure or shrinkage in the value of any real estate or security herein authorized to be held or purchased as an investment of the Trust Estate.

(9) They may vote in person or by proxy upon all shares of ^{capital stock} of which are part of the Trust Estate. They may initiate or participate at any state in any plan for the reorganization, recapitalization, financing or refinancing of any corporation or association of which the Trustee or Trustees hold shares or obligations, and unite with other owners of similar property for carrying out said purposes, or, to that end, deposite such property either conditionally or unconditionally with stockholders' or bondholders' protective committees, and may institute suits, pay assessments, costs and expenses, either in advance or otherwise, for the protection of their interest or enforcement of their rights in the premises.

(10) They may pay in whole or in part any indebtedness secured by mortgage or deed of trust on any property that is a part of the Trust Estate, and may in such manner as they ^{may} think proper, renew or extend the time of maturity or payment of any such indebtedness, or any part thereof.

(11) They may extend mortgages due the estate, gratuitously or otherwise, if deemed for the advantage of the Trust; also, reduce interest rates on obligations owing to the Trust. They may also accept conveyances in lieu of foreclosure.

(12) I hereby authorize the Trustee or Trustees named herein to dispose of the property which might be a part of this Trust Estate at such time as in their good judgment they may deem proper, and that all money which might be obtained from said sale or sales, and/or all monies realized from such sale or sales of any property aforesaid, and all monies realized from the sale or sales of any property owned or held by any corporation, all or a part of the shares which are held by said Trustees, or constitute a part of said Trust Estate, shall be by said Trustees (a) invested from time to time in interest-bearing notes secured by a first lien on any such real estate that may be approved by said Trustee or Trustees, or shall be invested in such other securities and investments as a savings bank in Missouri would lawfully be then permitted to invest in or purchase; (b) they may purchase at public or private sale any property in which the Trustee or Trustees have an interest as Trustee or Trustees hereunder; (c) any portion of the proceeds of such sale or sales or funds that are a part of said Trust Estate may be used by said Trustees to pay any indebtedness owing by me, or incurred by said Trustees in carrying on the business, or to pay any encumbrance or erect or make improvements on any real estate belonging to or held under this Trust.

(13) The title to all property shall be so taken and held by said Trustees as to constitute such property a part of said Trust Estate.

(14) They may use either principal or income on the proceeds of insurance policies, or condemnation proceedings, or any part thereof, for taxes, general or special assessments, ordinary or extra-ordinary repairs, improvements and rebuilding improvements on property held in freehold or leasehold, insurance, assessments on shares of stock, expense of reorganization or refinancing or employment of agents or attorneys

(15) They may take and rely upon, for their full protection when acting in good faith, advice of competent counsel concerning any question of construction of the trust instrument or administration of the Trust Estate.

(16) They may insure against all manner of risks of loss, including public liability.

(17) They may grant options, easements, and oil, gas and mineral rights upon the Trust Estates successively or any part thereof in perpetuity or for such times and all upon such terms and conditions, and when and as often, as the Trustee or Trustees in their judgment shall deem best. They may also dedicate or grant public easements gratuitously if needed to the advantage of the Trust Estate.

(18) They may accumulate reasonable reserves from time to time out of income for the payment of taxes, repairs to buildings, and other anticipated charges and expenses.

(19) They are authorized to abandon any real estate which shall be unproductive in whole or in part or upon which any accrued and unpaid taxes or mortgage shall at any time be of such an amount as not in the opinion of the Trustee or Trustees to justify payment of taxes or mortgages thereon by the Trustee or Trustees.

(20) The proceeds of the Trust Estate of every nature whatsoever shall be deposited in some bank as may be agreed upon by said Trustees, in a joint account and subject to withdrawal only by checks signed by one of the Trustees and countersigned by the remaining Trustees or survivor thereof; provided, however, that upon the death of two of the Trustees, or their withdrawal as Trustees due to any incapacity, that funds may be withdrawn by the surviving Trustee. It is my desire that any sum or sums which may be on deposit to my credit in any bank, trust company, or depository at my decease, upon the filing of this will, be subject to withdrawal in the manner heretofore provided for by said Executors and Trustees for the purposes set forth herein.

(21) If at any time any person entitled to receive payments of income, rents or profits of the Trust Estate be a minor, the Trustees may make such payments to said minor to his or their natural guardian, without requiring qualification according to law, or may or may not require the due appointment of a guardian, pursuing in each case the course which the Trustee or Trustees may deem to be for the best interest of the minor. The Trustee or Trustees shall be given full credit and protection for all amounts distributed in the exercise of the discretion hereby given them.

(22) I further direct the Trustees named herein, or their Successors, at all times to keep a complete and correct record, under the title of "Trust Estate", of the assets of said Trust Estate, so that if at any time said trusteeship may be abruptly terminated due to death, accident or any unexpected event which might be responsible for an abrupt withdrawal by the parties herein named as Trustees, there will be available to the succeeding Trustee or Trustees a complete record of said Trust Estate. The Trustees shall determine for themselves all doubtful questions of trust accounting.

(23) No person dealing with the Trustee shall be bound to see or to be liable for the application of any money or other consideration loaned or otherwise paid to the Trustees, or to inquire into the power or authority of the Trustees, or into the validity, expediency, or propriety of any transaction affecting either of the provisions of the trust.

ARTICLE XVI

I direct that all legacies made in this, my Last Will and Testament, if the same be subject to or charged with any inheritance, succession, legacy or estate tax, be paid free from any such inheritance, succession, legacy or estate tax; and that all such taxes be paid out of the corpus, or principal, of the Trust Estate.

ARTICLE XVII

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my wife Etta L. Moulton, my son, Cleveland F. Moulton, Jr., and my secretary, Edna P. Steele, or the survivor or survivors of them, as Executors of this, my Last Will and Testament. Having the fullest confidence in each of the persons so named by me, I hereby waive all bonds or securities on their part, and request that the same shall not be required of the individual Trustees herein named.

ARTICLE XVIII

Any beneficiary named in this will, or any other person whatsoever (other than the three first Trustees herein named and acting jointly as a whole) who should directly or indirectly, through court proceedings or otherwise, attempt to hinder, delay through court action, or otherwise to prevent the enforcement of this, my Last Will and Testament, shall be forever barred from any and all benefits thereunder.

II

Because of the help given me by my son, Joseph C. Lindsay since the death of my husband, I have heretofore deeded to my son, Joseph C. Lindsay, sixty acres described as follows: The southwest quarter of the northeast quarter, and the east half of the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of Section 25, Township 34, Range 22 upon the conditions as set out in the deed. In the event either of my said children predecease me, then and in that event, it is my will that the children of said deceased child should take the share that would have been their parents, had they not died, said children to share equally the share that would have belonged to their parents

IV

In case any person interested in my estate shall contest this will, in part or in whole, and attempt to prevent the proof thereof, then I declare that such contest and such attempt shall cancel and terminate all provisions for or in favor of the person or persons making or inciting such contest, without regard to whether such contest shall succeed or not; and I hereby declare all and any provisions or provision herein in favor of the person or persons so making such contest, or attempting or inciting the same, to be revoked and of no force and effect, and in lieu thereof I hereby give and bequeath to such persons or person the sum of five ($5.00 and no more.
