LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Nannie J. Whittenburg, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills made by me:

FIRST: I direct that all of my just debts, if any, including funeral expenses and expenses of last illness, be paid as soon after my death as can conveniently be done.

SECOND: I appoint as Executor of this my Last Will and Testament my son, Marion Nelson, and direct that he be permitted to serve as such without giving bond. I direct that my Executor without the necessity of judicial authority or approval shall at such times as he deems proper sell all or any part of my estate, real, personal or mixed, at public or private sale upon such terms as he deems proper and convert the same into cash. For the purposes of such sales he is hereby empowered, without the necessity of judicial authority and approval with full authority to execute bills of sale, deeds of real property and such other endorsements, assignments and conveyances as may be necessary to transfer to the purchaser the same.

THIRD: After my estate, real, personal or mixed has been converted into cash by my Executor, it shall be divided into four shares. I give one share each to Arthur Nelson, Marion Nelson and Oscar Nelson. If Oscar Nelson shall predecease me, I give his share to his wife, Lena Nelson.

FOURTH: I give, devise and bequeath one share of my estate as defined in Paragraph Third to my son, Marion Nelson, in trust for the use and benefit of my son, Paul Nelson, if he survives me for the following uses and purposes:

a. To take, receive, and receipt for such property; to demand, receive and compromise any right of action or right to realty or personalty by this will transferred: to subdivide, option, sell, exchange, rent, lease, partition, mortgage, pledge, the whole or any part of the real, mixed, or personal estate in said trust; to remodel; repair or demolish buildings on said real estate or any portion thereof; to pay all taxes and assessments and insurance and bond premiums incident to the trust; to retain any and all securities and evidences of indebtedness and investment received by it from the Executor, even though such securities and investments may not be eligible under law as an investment for funds held in trust by trustees; to collect and receipt for the income and profits of the trust funds; to invest and reinvest such fund and its income and increase in such income producing securities and investments as to the Trustee shall seem best; to vote, in person or in proxy, shares of stock, to deposit securities under consolidation, merger or reorganization plans; to participate and cooperate through and with stockholder, bondholder or creditors committees; to convert real estate into personalty and personal estate into realty; to pay all necessary expenses, including the Trustee's compensation, appertaining to the execution of this trust; to execute and deliver all required instruments and documents; to exercise all other acts necessary for the accomplishment of the purposes of this trust and needed to perform the duties of Trustee.

b. During the lifetime of my son, Paul Nelson, to pay to Paul Nelson such amount monthly from the income or principal of said trust as my trustee shall see fit, for his maintenance.

If the said trust shall at any time include a house, my trustee may at his discretion permit Paul Nelson to occupy said premises as his home.

c. The right of my son to receive benefits from the trust created by this will shall be free from the interference or control of his creditors, and shall not be anticipated by assignment, nor in any event applicable to the payment of his debts; and if my son shall alienate or attempt to alienate such benefits or if, by reason of bankruptcy, insolvency, or any other means, said benefits could no longer be personally enjoyed by my son, but would become vested in or payable to some other person, then the trustee, or his successor, is to regard the best interest of my son, and in his discretion, exercised freely and advisedly, either refrain from extending benefits to my son, or accumulate the trust and its income whole or in part.

d. Upon the death of my son, Paul Nelson, my trustee shall pay for his burial and grave marker. My trustee shall then terminate the trust subject to the approval of the Probate Court of Polk County, Missouri, and distribute the said trust to the two children of Paul Nelson: Marilyn Nelson and Paulette Nelson.
