as not to go into Frank Kings hands in any shape or form.

Now after my wife Elizabeth Rantner gets her and her four little childrens part, of the Estate out, and the debts paid by those that is due which is charged in the foregoing bill,
I want the remainder equally divided among my children of my first and oldest family, as above stated, and to carry out my will
I hereby constitute and appoint my son Cooper B. Rantner to take possession of the remainder of my effects with a tract of land known as the Newland Land amounting to 200 Acres valued 2500 Dollars and sell it, and divide it equally between himself, and his full Brothers and Sisters, as it has always been my desire to have my Estate wound up outside of the Probate Court I have appointed legal agents, I have given authority to my wife Elizabeth Rammer and my son Joseph B Rammer to take of their particular distributed parts of the Estate and keep it out of the hands of an administrator.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Ethel Hale, of Dallas County, Missouri, being now in good health, strength of body and mind, but sensible to the uncertainty of life, and desiring to make disposition of my property and affairs while in health and strength, do hereby make, publish and declare the following to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and cancelling all other or former wills by me at any time made.

Article First: I direct the payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses.

Article Second: To my son, Bob Hale, I give $5.00. The balance of my estate I leave one half of my daughter, Louise Smith; and one-fourth to Shirley Weatherly, and one fourth to Billy Gene Hale. I direct that if I die before Billy Gene Hale has reached the age of twenty-one years that his share of my estate be held by the executrix of this will as trustee until Billy Gene is twenty-one years of age.

I direct that Louise Smith be appointed executrix, without bond, of this my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof, I, Ethel Hale, have to this my last Will and Testament, consisting of one sheet of paper subscribed my name this 21st day of November, 1962

Last Will and Testament

Calton W. Bland

I, Calton W. Bland, of the City of Chillicothe, County of Ross and State of Ohio, being of full age and sound of mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking all wills by me heretofore made.

ITEM I. I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate as soon as practicable after the time of my decease.

ITEM II. All the property, real and personal, of every kind and description, wheresoever the same may be situate, which I may own or have the right to dispose of at the time of my decease, I give, bequeath and devise to my wife, Vauda Pauline Bland, absolutely and in fee simple, provided she shall survive me.

ITEM III. In the event my said wife, Vauda Pauline Bland, shall not survive me, or in the event of both of our deaths as a result of a common casualty or catastrophe under such circumstances that the order in which our deaths occurred cannot be readily be determined, then the provisions of Item II shall lapse and by way of substitution all the property, real and personal, of every kind and description, wheresoever situate, which I may own or have the right to dispose of at the time of my decease, I give, bequeath and devise to Clyde Campbell and Mildred Campbell of Flemington, Missouri, in trust, however, for the following use and purpose.

To have and hold said property, in trust, for the exclusive use and benefit of my daughter, Pamela Kathleen Bland, until she shall have reached the age of eighteen (18) years at which time I direct that said trustees transfer and pay over to Pamela Kathleen Bland the remaining corpus of the trust herein provided for together with any accrued income, to be hers absolutely and in fee simple.

In the care, management and control of the trust property, I hereby grant to the within named trustees full power, without any order of Court, to control, exchange, sell, dispose of or lease all or any part of the trust property, and to invest and reinvest the trust funds in any bonds, stocks, mortgages or other securities which they, in the exercise of their personal discretion, deem prudent.

The net income from said trust shall be used for the care, comfort, education and support of my said daughter, Pamela Kathleen Bland, as aforesaid, but in the event, in the opinion of my said trustees, the net income therefrom is insufficient for this purpose, then and in that event I hereby empower my said trustees to use any part or all of the corpus of said trust for these purposes. The decision to use any part or all of the trust corpus for the benefit of Pamela Kathleen Bland shall rest solely within the discretion of my said trustees, and shall not be dependant upon the order of any Court.

ITEM IV. In the event that my said wife, Vauda Pauline Bland, shall not survive me, as provided in the preceeding item, I also direct that the said Clyde Campbell and Mildred Campbell, who are the maternal grand-parents of Pamela Kathleen Bland, be granted physical custody of my said daughter in order to carry out the provisions of Item III above.

ITEM V. If she shall survive me, I make, nominate and appoint my wife, Vauda Pauline Bland, to be the executrix of this, my last will and testament. If my said wife shall not survive me, or in the event of her inability or refusal to so act, then by way of substitution, I make, nominate and appoint my brother, Carlos J. Bland, to be the executor of this, my last will and testament. I request that no bond be required of Vauda Pauline Bland as said Executrix.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand at Chillicothe, Ohio this 26th, day of June, A. D. 1954.

Calton W. Bland

Signed by the said Calton W. Bland and by him acknowledged to be his last will and testament, before us and in our presence, and by us subscribed as attesting witnesses in his presence and at his request and in the presence of each other this 26th, day of June, A. D. 1954.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF A. CANADAY

I, A. Canaday, being of sound mind, do hereby publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills by me made.

1st...It is my request and will that all my just debts be fully paid, excluding expenses of funeral and last sickness.

2nd...I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter, Birdie Cecil Swank the following described lands, situated in Dallas County, Missouri, to-wit:

The East one-half of Lot Two Northeast Quarter of Section Six, Township Thirty-three, Range Twenty, and the East one-half half of the Southeast Quarter of Section Thirty-one, Township Thirty-four, Range Twenty.

The said Birdie Cecil Swank shall be vested with an estate for life in said lands; and should she die without issue of her body the estate herein above devised, shall be vested in my surviving heirs or their issue, share and share alike, but in the event that my said daughter shall leave surviving her a child or children the said child or children shall inherit the remainder in fee in said lands, upon the death of my said daughter.

3rd...I give devise and bequeath to my oldest son Alonzo Canaday my gold watch.

4th...I give, devise and bequeath to my younger son Frances Terry Canaday the sum of Thirty-five Dollars, with which to purchase a watch.

5th...I give, devise and bequeath to my wife Leona Canaday all of the household and kitchen furniture, including beds, bedding, piano, also my diamond shirt stud valued at $300.00.

6th...After the payment of the above special bequests, I give devise and bequeath all of my remaining property, real, personal and mixed to my two sons, Alonzo Canaday and Frances Terry Canaday and to my wife Leona Canaday, to be divided equally among them, share and share alike.

Should any devisee or legatee named in this will be dissatisfied with their portion therein and attempt to revoke the same their bequest or bequests shall be forfeited and the same shall be divided equally among the other legatees or their issue.

I hereby name and appoint my wife Leona Canaday, Executrix of this will.

In Testimony Whereof, I hereto sign my name this 11th day of October, 1910.

A. Canaday

We, the undersigned, in the presence of the testator and in the presence of each other hereby sign as witnesses thereto; and the said testator declared the same to be his last Will and Testament. Signed this 11th day of October, 1910:

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OFO. E. MOORE

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I, O. E. MOORE, of Aurora, Lawrence County, Missouri, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills or codicils by me at any time made.

ITEM I. I direct that all of my just debts and the expenses of my last illness and burial be first paid.

ITEM II. I give and bequeath all of my capital stock in the Standard Milk Company, a Missouri corporation, unto my sons, Robert L. Moore and Donald W. Moore, share and share alike.

ITEM III. I give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Linda E. Moore, that portion of my estate the value of which shall be exactly the sum needed to obtain the maximum marital deduction in determining the Federal Estate tax on my estate after taking into account all other items of my adjusted gross estate as defined in the Internal Revenue Code passing to my wife under this will, or by operation of law, or through insurance contracts or otherwise, which is deemed to have passed from me to her for the purpose of the Federal Estate tax marital deduction. For the purpose of satisfaction of this devise and bequest unto my said beloved wife, I give unto her all of my strictly personal effects and such portion of my partnership interest in the partnership of O. E. Moore & Sons as may be necessary to fully satisfy the bequest to my said wife hereunder. Assets transferred under this item shall be distributed at the value finally determined for Federal Estate tax purposes irrespective of the valuation date which may be selected by my Executor for such purpose. It is also my will that my said wife shall have the privilege of purchasing from my estate all or any part of the remainder of my said partnership interest in O. E. Moore & Sons at the value thereof finally determined for Federal Estate tax purposes. All of the household goods, furniture and furnishings in our home are and have been the property of my beloved wife, Linda E. Moore, for many years and for that reason I have not included them in this bequest. In the event my beloved wife, Linda E. Moore, shall predecease me, the devise and bequest to her under this paragraph of my will shall lapse, and all property passing to her under the terms thereof shall become a part of my residuary estate and shall be distributed in accordance with the terms and provisions of Item IV of this, my last will and testament.

O. E. Moore

ITEM IV. I direct my Executor hereinafter named to pay out of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated, all estate, inheritance, succession and other death taxes due and imposed on or in connection with my estate or any part thereof, whether owned solely by me, owned by me jointly with some other person or persons, or upon proceeds of life insurance policies upon my life, or upon Government bonds payable upon my death to a designated person or persons, or upon gifts inter vivos made by me or otherwise. My Executor shall be under no obligation to recover from any beneficiary any tax of any kind paid from my estate under the terms of this paragraph of my will. All of the balance of said rest, residue and remainder of my estate, I give, devise and bequeath as follows: One-half (1/2) thereof unto my son, Donald W. Moore; one-fourth (1/4) thereof unto my granddaughter, Elizabeth Irene Arnaud; and one-fourth (1/4) thereof unto my grandson, Robert L. Moore, Jr.

ITEM V. I hereby name my son, Robert L. Moore, as Executor of this, my Last Will and Testament, and request that he be permitted to serve as such without giving bond. In the event of his death, disability or refusal to act, I name The Union National Bank of Springfield, Springfield, Missouri, and my son, Donald W. Moore, as Executors of this, my Last Will and Testament,

We, Manely E. Roberts and Bennie Irene Roberts, husband and wife, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be our Joint Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all prior wills by us or either of us heretofore made.

ARTICLE I: It is our joint will that out of the estate of the one who predeceases the other all just debts and expenses of administration be fully paid.

ARTICLE II: It is our joint will that out of the estate of the survivor of us, all just debts and expenses of administration be fully paid.

ARTICLE III: It is our joint will that all of the property of which the one who predeceases the other dies seized and possessed, whether the same be real, personal or mixed, and wherever located and situate, shall be and is hereby given, devised and bequeathed unto the survivor, absolutely and in fee simple; and it is furthermore our joint will that at the death of the survivor, all of the property of which the survivor dies seized and possessed shall be disposed of as follows:

We hereby give, devise and bequeath all of the property of which the survivor of us dies seized and possessed unto Forrest Roberts, son of Manley E. Roberts, and unto Lois Bowring, daughter of Bennie Irene Roberts, in equal shares of one-half each, absolutely and in fee simple, provided, however, that if either one or both of them predecease the survivor of us that the share of such deceased child shall go to and vest absolutely in the bodily heirs, if any, of such deceased child, but if either child should die without bodily heirs, then to the survivor of said children.

ARTICLE IV: It is furthermore our joint will that in the event of the death of one of us that no act, writing, will, codicil, or declaration of the survivor shall effect a revocation of this will, or any change in its terms or provisions.

ARTICLE V: We hereby nominate and appoint the survivor of us as Executor of this will on the death of the other, and furthermore nominate and appoint Elvin S. Douglas, an attorney of Bolivar, Missouri as Executor of this will on the death of the survivor of us.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we the undersigned joint testators have hereunto signed our names at Bolivar, Missouri, this 9th day of February, 1965.

Estate of Maggie Ellen McConnell,

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

I, Maggie Ellen McConnell, of Louisburg, Missouri, do hereby make, publish, and declare the following as and for my last will and Testament, never having made a will prior to this date, to wit:

ITEM I. I direct that my executor, herein after named, shall first pay all of my just and lawful debts as soon after my death as convenient. This shall also include expenses of my last illness and nurse hire, if any, and funeral expenses.

ITEM II. I also direct my executor to erect at my grave a suitable monument consistent with my situation in life, and pay for it out of the estate.

ITEM III. I have in mind my sister Maude Montgomery and my brother Isaac Martin McConnell, but I leave them nothing by this will. I also have some nieces and nephews of deceased brothers and sisters whom I have in mind, but leave them nothing by this will.

ITEM IV. After the above have been taken care of by my executor, it is my will that all of the rest of my estate shall go to and vest in James Berten McConnell. This property consists of an undivided one-half interest in a farm that we own as tenants in common, being the West half of Lots three (3) and Four (4) of the Northwest Quarter of Section one (1), Township Thirtyfour (34), Range Twentyone (21) in Polk County, Missouri, containing Eighty (80) acres more or less.

ITEM V; In case my brother, James Berten McConnell and I are both killed in a common disaster, then it is my will that any property that I may leave may be divided equally between my sister Maude Montgomery and my brother Isaac Martin McConnell, share and share alike, or to the survivor. In case my said sister and brother Isaac Martin McConnell do not survive me and my brother James Berten McConnell, then the said estate shall be divided as follows: Whoever the Court may appoint as successor Executor to my brother James Berten McConnell shall sell the real estate as well as the personal property, reducing all of my estate to money, and the said money after the payment of my debts as in the first paragraph hereof set out, and the balance shall be divided $ 500.00 to the Lindley Creek Baptist Church, Northeast of Goodson, Missouri, and $ 500.00 to the Trustees of Reynolds Chappel Cemetary Association, located in the west part of Dallas County, Missouri, said money to be used for the up-keep and beautification of the said cemetary, then, if there is any surplus money left over, said surplus shall go to and vest in the Trustees of the Home for the Aged Baptists at Ironton, Missouri.

ITEM VI: I hereby nominate and appoint my brother James Berten McConnell as executor of this Will and request that he be permitted to serve as such without bond.

DATED AT BOLIVAR, MISSOURI: this 3rd day of October, 1956.

Maggie Ellen McConnell
Testatrix

The above Testatrix, in our presense, declared the above and foregoing instrument typed on one sheet of paper, to be her last Will and Testament and at her request, and in her presense, and in the presense of each other we hereto subscribe our names as witnesses, the day and year last above written,

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

I, HELEN L. CLARK, of Bolivar, Missouri, do hereby make, publish and declare this as my last will and testament, to wit:

ARTICLE I. I hereby revoke any and all former wills by me made.

ARTICLE II. I direct the payment of all of my just debts and that my burial expenses to be held to an amount of not to exceed One Thousand and no/ 100 Dollars ($ 1000.00)

ARTICLE III. I hereby direct that all possessions in my house that were given to me by my children shall be returned by my executor to the givers, and such items shall not be listed as assets in my estate.

Article IV. Not unmindful of my sons, Everett West, Vern Syphert, Loyd Syphert and John Syphert Clark, I give, devise and bequeath unto my daughter Ida Bryant, of Buffalo, Missouri, the sum of $ 50.00, and I give, devise and bequeath the remainder of my estate unto my following named children in equal shares of one-fourth each, absolutely to wit: Nona Pucket, Rosa Jones, Nellie Dunaway and Sherman Syphert.

In the event that any of the last named children should die before I do then the share of such deceased child shall go to the survivor of said four children.

ARTICLE V. I hereby name, nominate and appoint Nellie Dunaway of Bolivar, Missouri, as Executrix of this my last Will and Testament and request that she be permitted to serve as such without bond and in the event that she predecease me or is unable or unwilling to act as such, then I name, nominate and appoint my son in law Alfred O. Dunaway as executor of this my last will and testament and request that he be permitted to serve as such without bond, Done at Bolivar, Missouri, this 31st day of December, 1964.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

I, S. E. Ealy, of Polk County, Missouri, of lawful age do make and publish the following as my Last will and Testament, and hereby revoke all former wills by me made, to wit:

First: I direct that all of my just debts, including expense of last illness, and funeral expenses be first paid by my executor, hereinafter named.

Second: I hereby will, devise and bequeath all the rest, remainder and residue of property of which I may die seized and possessed whether the same be real, personal or mixed and wherever located, to my beloved wife, Alma Ealy, to be hers absolutely and in fee.

Third: I have in mind our daughter, Betty Carol Ealy but having confidence and faith in my wife that she will properly, and faithfully look after, care for, educate said child and daughter being a child of tender years I leave all of my said property to my said wife, as the paragraph next before this stipulates.

Fourth: In case my wife, Alma Ealy dies before I do, then and in that event I hereby will, devise and bequeath all of my property to my said daughter Bettie Carol Ealy, to be hers absolutely and in fee.

Fifth: In case my wife and I both die before the said daughter reaches the age of eighteen years, it is our wish and will that the daughter shall be placed in the care, and custody of my sister-in-law and my wife's sister Eunice Ealy, wife of Arthur Ealy, in such case it is my wish and will that the said Eunice Ealy be guardian of the said daughter, Bettie Carol, as well as have personal care, custody, and control of said daughter, and is to look after her welfare, care and education.

Sixth: I hereby appoint and designate my said wife, Alma Ealy, executrix of this last Will and Testament, and request that she be permitted to serve as such without bond. In case my said wife dies before I do, then I hereby appoint my sister-in-law Eunice Ealy, as my executrix.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF SELAH F. BARNES

I, Selah F. Barnes, of the City of Bolivar, Polk County, Missouri, being of sound mind and disposing memory and more than 21 years of age, do hereby make, publish and declare this as and for my last will and testament, and I do hereby revoke any and all former wills and codicils thereto by me at any time made.

FIRST: I direct the payment of my just and lawful debts and the expenses of my last illness and funeral out of the assets of my estate by my executor, hereinafter named, as soon after my decease as conveniently may be.

SECOND: I am a widow and I have ten living children, these being Effie Terry, Alvie Barnes, Dee Barnes, Eva Garrett, Faye Barber, Wilson Barnes, Truman Barnes, Elna Barnes, Selah Fern Blacey, and Athaleen Speneson. My eleventh child, Roma Barnes, is now deceased leaving two children, Roma Eldon Barnes and Charlotte Ann Barnes, my grandchildren, for whom I wish to make some provision.

THIRD: I direct my executor, hereinafter named, to include in the inventory of my estate all notes and debts which may be due to me, from my children as well as from other persons, and to collect for my estate all of such notes and debts as he is able to collect.

FOURTH: I do hereby give, devise and bequeath all of my property of every kind and wherever situate, real, personal or mixed, in eleven equal parts, my ten living children to receive a one-eleventh share each and the two children of my deceased son, Roma Barnes, to have a total share of one-eleventh or a one-twenty-second part each. If any of the beneficiaries named herein should predecease me, then I do give, devise and bequeath their share in my estate to their heirs at law.

FIFTH: However, I place the following limitation upon the bequests hereinabove made in Paragraph Fourth of this Will: If any of the beneficiaries under this will should continue to be indebted to my estate at the time of the final settlement thereof, then the amount of such unpaid indebtedness shall be considered an asset of my estate in figuring the one-eleventh shares to be distributed, and the amount of such indebtedness shall be deducted from the share in my estate which such indebted beneficiary would otherwise receive.

SIXTH: I authorize and direct my executor, hereinafter named, to take possession of and sell any real estate and tangible personal property which I may own at the time of my death, so as to convert my estate into cash, and I authorize him to sell the same at either public or private sale, as he shall think best, without any order of the probate court being required, and to execute all necessary deeds and bills of sale for the purpose of vesting title to said property in the purchasers.

SEVENTH: I do hereby name, nominate and appoint my son, Truman Barnes, as the executor, of this, my last will and testament, and it is my wish and direction that he be permitted to serve as such executor without giving any official bond.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I do hereunto subscribe my name to this, my last will and testament, at Bolivar, Missouri, this 20th day of February, 1964.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF SALLY JOHNSON PECK

I, Sally Johnson Peck, of the City of Bolivar, Folk County, Missouri, being of sound mind and disposing memory and more than 21 years of age. do hereby make, publish and declare this as and for my last will and testament, and I do hereby revoke any and all former wills and codicils thereto by me at any time made.

FIRST: I direct my executor, hereinafter named, to pay my just and lawful debts and the expenses of my last illness and funeral as soon after my decease as conveniently may be.

SECOND: I am a widow and I have three children, these being my son, Loyd Dwyer Johnson, my son William Piper Johnson, and my daughter Lois Athaline O'Hara.

THIRD: All of my property of whatever kind and wherever situate, real, personal and mixed, I do hereby give, devise and bequeath in three equal parts, share and share alike, to be distributed as follows: One-third thereof to my son, Loyd Dwyer Johnson, to be his absolutely. One-third thereof to my son, William Piper Johnson, to be his absolutely. The remaining one-third thereof to my son, Loyd Dwyer Johnson, as trustee for my daughter, Lois Athaline O'Hara, this remaining one-third to be held in trust by Loyd Dwyer Johnson for the use and benefit of Lois Athaline O'Hara in the manner herein-after set out.

FOURTH: The said Loyd Dwyer Johnson shall, upon final distribution of my estate, receive one-third part thereof in trust and invest the same in certificates of deposit with federally insured banks or savings and loan associations. He shall, out of the principal and interest of the said trust, pay to my daughter, Lois Athaline O'Hara, the sum of $100.00 each month for her support and maintenance, commencing immediately after his receipt of said trust property and continuing until the trust property, both principal and interest, is exhausted or until the death of the said Lois Athaline O'Hara, whichever shall first occur. However, if in the sole and uncontrolled discretion of my said son, Loyd Dwyer Johnson, the said Lois Athaline O'Hara shall be in need of food, clothing, shelter or medical and surgical attention, or expenses of her last illness and funeral, then in that event said Loyd Dwyer Johnson, as trustee, may expend from the principal and interest in his hands any such additional amount over and above $100.00 monthly as he in his discretion shall think best. Upon the death of the said Lois Athaline O'Hara this trust shall terminate, and any amounts of principal and interest remaining in the hands of the trustee shall be divided in equal parts, share and share alike, between the two children of the said Lois Athaline O'Hara.

FIFTH: I do hereby authorize and direct my executor, hereinafter named, to take possession of all of my property, real, personal or mixed, immediately following my death, and to sell the same at either public or private sale, as he in his discretion shall think best, for the best price obtainable. And I authorize said executor to execute and and all necessary deed and bills of sale to convey title to the same to the purchaser, and for him to make such sales without any order of the probate court being required.

SIXTH: During my lifetime I have made gifts of certain of my household and personal effects which still remain in my possession. A list of these articles and the persons to whom they have been given is located in my family bible, and in no event are these articles which have been given as aforesaid to be included in my estate.

SEVENTH: I do hereby name, nominate and appoint my said son Loyd Dwyer Johnson, of Box 63 Warsaw, Missouri, as the executor of this, my last will and testament, and it is my wish and direction that he be permitted to serve as such executor without giving any official bond.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I do hereunto subscribe my name to this, my last will and testament, at Bolivar, Missouri, this 16th day of June, 1964.

Sig/ Sally Johnson Peck
