LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Eulah Dooley, do hereby make, publish and declare this as my Last Will and Testament, to-wit:

ITEM I: I desire that all of my just debts, including my funeral expenses and expenses of my last illness, be first paid.

ITEM II: All of the rest, residue and remainder of the property of which I might die seized and possessed, after the payment of the items listed in Item I hereof, whether the same be real, personal or mixed, I give, devise and bequeath unto my setp-son, Paul Dooley, absolutely and in fee simple.

ITEM III: In the event my said step-son should pre-decease me, then I give devise and bequeath all of the rest, residue, and remainder of the property of which I might die seized and possessed, after the payment of the items mentioned in Item I hereof, whether the same be real, personal or mixed, unto Cheryl Dooley, daughter of my said step-son, Paul Dooley, to be hers, absolutely and in fee simple.

ITEM IV: In so disposing of my property I am not unmindful of the kindnesses that have been extended to me in the past by my other step-sons, Denzil, Orville and Leslie Dooley, but I am taking into account the fact that Paul Dooley lives near me and has been a great deal of help to me in my advanced years, and I have no doubt but what he and his wife, Alberta, will continue to be of a great deal of help to me throughout the remainder of my life, although I do not make this statement with any intention of imposing any conditions on the gift, devise and bequest to my said step-son, Paul Dooley, or in case of his death to his daughter Cheryl Dooley.

ITEM V: In making this Will I am not unmindful of my sister, Nell Werner, nor of my brother, William A. Yager, both of whom have homes of their own and appear to be prosperous, but both of them are too far removed from me to be of any help to me in my advanced years.

ITEM VI: I hereby name, nominate and appoint my said step-son Paul Dooley of Bolivar, Missouri as Executor of this Last Will and Testament, and request that he be permitted to serve as such without bond, and in the event he should predecease me, then in that event I name, nominate and appoint T. WILL

I, Susan Dickerson, widow of Jerome Dickerson, deceased, late of Springfield, Missouri, do hereby make, declare and publish this to be my last will and testament, hereby expressly revoking any and all wills, and codicils thereto, by me at any time heretofore made.

I.

I request that all my just debts, if any, be paid by my executors hereinafter named. I declare that no claim could be presented against my estate, except such as could arise from my last illness and burial. I am not now indebted to any one. I have not given, nor do I intend to make any promises, which could in any manner constitute a claim against my estate.

II.

I give and bequeath unto my dear sister, Margaret A. Clough, if she survive me, the sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars, and direct that she shall, so long as it may please her so to do, and without charge or expense to her, have the right in common with my son Leon, to use and occupy, as a place of residence, my present home place, No. 610 South Jefferson Street, Springfield, Missouri.

III.

To my dear brother, David Garry, of Lisbon, State of New York, I give and bequeath the sum of Three Hundred Dollars, provided he survives me.

IV.

Subject to the provisions of said foregoing items one, two and three, of this will, and provided my son, Leon Dickerson shall survive me, I give, bequeath, and devise to my four other children, Eva Durst, (Dead) Rollin P. Dickerson (Dead), Elwin L. Dickerson, (Resigned), and Jerome Dickerson, Jr., trustees, and to their successors of the trust, and their heirs, executors and administrators respectively, according to the nature thereof and the following described real estate, personal estate and effects, to-wit:

(a) The premises, being the lot, house and improvements, No. 610 South Jefferson Street, in the City of Springfield, Missouri, where I now live;

(b) And also the household goods and house furnishings, and furniture that are now, and may be at the time of my decease, contained in and about said home place.

(c) Also the premises, being the lot, house and improvements No. 984 South Jefferson Street, in said City, formerly known as the Murphy home.

(d) Also the premises, being the lot, house and improvements No. 494 East Madison Street, in said City, located at the corner of Kimbrough Street and Madison Street, formerly known as the Whitlock place.

(e) Also the undivided eleven-fifteenths interest owned by me in the West Sixty acres of the tract known as Zoo Park, in Greene County, Missouri, so as to include the lake, the old frame hotel, and the brick building. The undivided eleven-fifteenths interest by me owned in the remaining portion of said Zoo Park tract to pass under item seven, and form a part of my residuary estate, under this Will.

(f) Also real estate notes, of the face value of Fifteen Thousand Dollars, of which I may die seized or possessed. Said notes to be such as are considered bankable, and as are secured by first deeds of trust, constituting first liens on good farms, each to be of the actual cash value, at the time of my death, of twice the amount of such deed of trust note.

(g) Also the twin six Packard Automobile, or any other automobile which I may hereafter acquire, - UPON TRUST, to apply the income therefrom, unto and for the benefit of my invalid son, Leon Dickerson, - to provide for him the comforts which his condition does or may admit, and to bear the expense thereof, in such sum as in the discretion of a majority of said trustees may be proper and necessary. If my said son Leon, should recover, then said trustees are directed to expend for his benefit and comfort such sum as a majority of said trustees shall think needful and adequate. Said trustees are authorized and empowered, for the benefit of my said son Leon, to lease said premises, to collect said notes and deeds of trust; to loan and reloan all proceeds arising from such rentals or collections, including the proceeds of sale of any real estate by them purchased under foreclosure of any such deed of trust, for the benefit of said trust estate. All loans and re-loans to be upon the security of first deeds of trust, on well located farm lands and improved city real estate, reasonable worth at the time of any such loan or re-loan, twice the amount of each loan. Said trustees are empowered to purchase real estate under foreclosure of mortgages and deeds of trust forming a part of said trust estate, and to sell the same at the discretion of a majority of said trustees, and such majority are authorized and empowered to execute proper deeds, to convey the same in fee simple: and they are further empowered, at their discretion to hold real estate so acquired, and the income, rents, profits and proceeds of sales thereof, and notes and deeds of trust evidencing deferred payments, in place of the notes secured by the deeds of trust so foreclosed; and to compromise and settle all matters and controversies which may arise in favor of or against said trust estate, - all for the use and benefit of my said son Leon. I direct that all securities, notes, deeds of trust, mortgages, trustees deeds under foreclosure, and instruments of conveyance of title to property in which trust funds, under the trust hereby created, are invested, loaned, re-loaned and invested, be taken and held by said trustees, in their names as such trustees for my said son Leon, for whose benefit such funds and property, effects and money are set apart and held, so that such trust funds, property, money and effects, and the accounts thereof, shall be kept separate and distinct from the private or individual funds, property, money and effects and accounts of the said trustees.

Upon the death of my said son Leon, I direct that said trust estate, money, property and effects, mentioned in this item four, and all additions thereto, and accumulations, then undisposed of, be by said trustees transferred and conveyed to my said four other children, Eva Durst, Rollin P. Dickerson, Jerome Dickerson, Jr., and Elwin L. Dickerson, in this will named, in equal shares, or such of them as shall at the time of the death of my said son Leon, be living, and to the issue of such of them as shall then be deceased, so that such issue shall take only the share which the parent would have taken if living.

Provided, however, it is my will and intention, and the provisions of this item four are upon the express condition, that neither said lands, property, money, notes, mortgages or deeds of trust, and estate, bequeathed, given and devised by this item four, so held in trust, nor the income, profits, rentals, revenue, or additions, therefrom or thereto, shall be in any manner liable to the control, or answerable for the debts, contracts, or engagements of my said son Leon, or liable to any charge, lien, encumbrance, assignment, conveyance or anticipation by him. Said trustees shall receive, annually, as compensation for their services, in the aggregate, the same commission as allowed by the laws of this state to executors or administrators for similar services, and in addition thereto such reasonable amount to defray actual expenses, necessarily incurred, in the performance of the duties of said trustees in and about said trust.

V.

I give and bequeath unto my beloved grand-daughter, Dorothy, who is the daughter of said Eva Durst, my diamond brooch, and all my clothing and wearing apparel, excepting such of said clothing and wearing apparel as my said sister Margaret may, if living at my death, select.

VI.

If any legatee or devisee shall die in my lifetime, then such legacy or devise shall not lapse, but shall go to the child or children (living at my death) of such legatees or devisees, so that the issue (living at my death) of such legatee or devisee so dying, shall, take only the share which the parent would have taken, if living.

VII.

Subject to the provisions and items of my will hereinbefore mentioned, I give, devise and bequeath all the residue of my real and personal estate, of which I may die seized or possessed, wherever situated, unto my dear children, Eva Durst, Jerome Dickerson, Jr., Rollin P. Dickerson, and Elwin L. Dickerson, as shall survive me, and the child or children, living at my death, of any child or children of mine dying before me, and, if more than one, in equal shares as between brothers and sisters, so that the child or children collectively of any deceased child of mine, shall take such share only as their parent would have taken, if living.

VIII.

If any devisee, legatee or beneficiary of this will, or of any codicil which may be added thereto, oppose, object to, contest or prevent or attempt to prevent by suit or action, at law or in equity, the execution of this will, or any one or more of its provisions, or of any codicil that may be added thereto, or call in question said will, or any provision thereof or codicil thereto, then in any such event any such devisee, legatee or beneficiary shall absolutely forfeit any and all rights in his or her favor created by this will, and by any codicil thereto, and in lieu thereof each such devisee, legatee or beneficiary, shall receive and there is hereby given and bequeathed to each such the sum of One Dollar.

IX.

There is now standing in my name on the records the title to real estate situate in Dallas County, Missouri, to-wit:

The East Half of the North East Fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of Section 13, Township 35, Range 20; and Lot 2 of the Northwest $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 18, Township 35, Range 19, and one square acre in the Southwest corner of Lot 2 of the Southwest $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 7, Township 35, Range 19, containing 164 acres, more or less, and formerly known as the Frank Ethridge place.

Also, all of the Southwest $\frac{1}{4}$ of the Southwest $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 13; Also, the West $\frac{1}{2}$ of the Northwest $\frac{1}{4}$; and the Northeast quarter $\frac{1}{4}$ of the Northwest $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 24, - all in Township 35, Range 20, containing 160 acres, more or less.

This land is owned by my said son Leon, and I hold the title thereto in trust for him. It was purchased at foreclosure sale of deeds of trust held and owned by him. I intend to sell these lands for his use and benefit. Should I fail to dispose of same in my lifetime, or to convey same to him, then I devise the same hereby to the said trustees in item four of this will named, in trust, for the use and benefit of my said son Leon, to be handled and managed in all respects as provided in said Item four, with all the rights, powers and authority in said trustees vested, as in said item four set forth.

X.

I hereby appoint my three sons, Elwin L. Dickerson, Rollin P. Dickerson, and Jerome Dickerson, Jr., as executors of this will and testament, upon the condition however, that not less than two of their number must concur in all acts, things, and deeds done, and required, with or without order of court, to be done in and about, and in anywise relating to, the execution of this will, and any codicil which may be added, thereto, and I request that said executors be required, to give bond as such, with sureties to the satisfaction and approval of the Probate Court of Greene County, Missouri, in a sum not exceeding Ten Thousand Dollars.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 5th day of December, 1917.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I, Helen L. White, of Bolivar, Polk County, Missouri, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills or codicils by me at any time made.

I. I direct that all of my just debts and the expenses of my last illness and burial be first paid.

II. I give, devise and bequeath unto my niece, Helen Weaver Harlan, of Richmond, Virginia, all of my Haviland china, all of my hand-painted china and all of my silverware.

III. I give, devise and bequeath unto my niece, Nina Baker, 1117 North Dearborn Street, Chicago 10, Illinois, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

IV. I give, devise and bequeath unto Dee Hastings Townsend, of Richmond, Missouri, niece of my late husband, W. S. White, the sum of five Hundred Dollars ($500.00)

V. If I have not already done so during my lifetime, I direct that my Executor place a marker at the grave of Julia Miller in Greenwood Cemetery, Bolivar, Missouri, such marker being similar to that at the grave of Judge Simpson in the same cemetery.

VI. I give, devise and bequeath all of my books, including those of my late husband, W. S. White, to the School of the Ozarks, located at Point Lookout, Missouri.

VII. I direct that my Executor convert all of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated, into cash, and do give unto my Executor power to sell and convey any and all of my property, real or personal, in his sound discretion.

VIII. All of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, having been converted into cash in accordance with the preceding paragraph of this will, I do give, devise and bequeath all of said cash proceeds of my residuary estate unto Drury College of Springfield, Missouri. The funds hereby given to Drury College shall be used to establish the Walter Scott White Scholarship Fund of Drury College. Scholarships from this fund are to be awarded to those students and in amounts as determined in accordance with the usual practice in the awarding of scholarships by Drury College, but first preference in the awarding of such scholarships shall be given to students from the Ozarks region who are members of either the Presbyterian, Methodist, Christian or Congregational Churches, provided, however, that in the event any grandniece or grandnephew of W. S. White should be interested in a scholarship from this fund, then they shall receive equal consideration with the above mentioned preferred class of students.

In the granting of scholarships, however, Drury College shall not be required to annually expend all of the income for scholarships, but may, if good practice and circumstances require it, from time to time permit unused income to accrue and grant scholarships therefrom in subsequent years

X. I hereby name and appoint J. F. Findlay as Executor of this my Last Will and Testament, providing he is still President of Drury College at the time of my death. If J. F. ITEM I: I hereby revoke all former Wills by me made.

ITEM II: I direct that all my funeral expenses, and expenses incident to my last illness, and all other just and lawful debts, be first paid.

ITEM III: ^{ to my daughter, Marjorie Douglas Olive, I give the sum of $1,000.00 in cash;} Out of my personal estate I hereby make the following bequests to my children: To my son, Elvin S. Douglas, I give and bequeath my law library and all office furniture, equipment and supplies, placing a value thereon in the sum of $1,000.00; to my son, Herbert H. Douglas, I give the sum of $1,000.00, in cash; to my daughter, Delma Douglas Burhans, I give the sum of $1,000.00 in cash; ^{} to my son, Garland D. Douglas, I give the sum of $1,000.00 in cash. I hereby will and devise to my son, Elvin S. Douglas, the sum of $1,000.00 to be held by him in trust to be paid in equal shares to my grandchildren, T. H. Douglas III, Donald Douglas and Constance Douglas, when they respectively reach the age of 21 years, they being the children of my deceased son, Thomas H. Douglas Jr.

If any of my said grandchildren, above named, predecease me, then, in that event, the bequest made to such child or children shall go to and vest in the survivor or survivors of said children, share and share alike. If the said children should die in a common disaster, or all die prior to their 21st birthday, the legacies to them above-mentioned shall lapse and shall become a part of my residuary estate.

ITEM IV: All of the rest, remainder and residue of my estate, whether the same be real, personal or mixed property, and wherever situate and located, I hereby will and devise, absolutely and in fee, to my beloved wife, Adelia C. Douglas.

ITEM V: Should my wife predecease me, then, in that event, all of my estate shall go to and vest absolutely in fee as follows:

To Elvin S. Douglas, a one-sixth part.

If any of the said grandchildren shall die before I do, or before they reach the age of 23 years, then his or her share shall go to the survivor or survivors of said children. My son, Elvin S. Douglas, shall not be required to give bond for the share due the three grandchildren. In case he dies before the grandchildren respectively reach the age of 23 years, then my son, Herbert H. Douglas, shall succeed to the Trusteeship on the same terms and conditions. An annual statement or report of this Trusteeship shall be filed with the Circuit Court of Polk County, Missouri, and a copy furnished the grandchildren.

ITEM VI: In case my wife pre-deceases me it is my wish and direction that the children or their respective families shall be entitled to take out of the home any articles that they have given me or their mother in our lifetime as a matter of right without accounting to the Executor for such articles. In addition to that the surviving children shall divide any household goods, including beds and bedding, kitchen furniture, silverware, and other personal articles, among themselves in an amicable manner as they see fit. If more than one wants the same article, my son, Herbert H. Douglas, shall be the arbitrator and his decision shall be final. The value of each article shall be agreed upon among the children. If they cannot agree the majority shall prevail. Each article taken, except the gifts, shall be charged against their respective shares on distribution.

I would like for the old family sideboard which came to me from my father and mother to go to one of the boys, but if the boys don't want it, then to one of the girls. I don't know which one of them would want the sideboard or would have room to take care of it. For the purpose of making distribution I place an arbitrary value of $250.00 on said sideboard,

All personal effects not wanted by my said children shall be sold by my Executor and the proceeds shall go into my residuary estate and distributed as in paragraph V. All of the provisions of Items V. and VI. are contingent on me surviving my wife.

ITEM VII: I enjoin all of my children, should I pre-decease their mother, that they be good and kind to her and that they make the pathway of life as easy and comfortable for her as possible as long as she may live.

ITEM VIII: If any of my children herein named shall die before I do, then their respective share of my estate shall go to the heirs of their body, share and share alike, if no heirs of the body, then to the surviving brothers and sisters, or their heirs.

ITEM IX: If any of my children owe me money at the time of my death, such sums shall be charged against their share of my estate.

ITEM X: I hereby appoint my wife, Adelia C. Douglas, as Executrix of this Will and request that she be permitted to serve without bond. In case she dies before I do, then I appoint my eldest son, Elvin S. Douglas, as Executor to act without bond. If I pre-decease my wife, I suggest she have Elvin S. Douglas, our eldest son, to help her in the administration of said estate, and that he be paid a fair fee therefor.

The above instrument is hereby executed at Bolivar, Missouri, this 25th day of August, 1954.

Thomas H. Douglas
TESTATOR.

We, the undersigned witnesses, do hereby state that the above instrument was executed by the above named Testator in our presence on the day and year last above written; that the Testator declared the same to be his Last Will and Testament; that he signed the same in our presence, and at his request, and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, we hereto subscribe our names as witnesses.
