In the Matter of the estate of Ludwig Ullmann, Deceased.

Will and Codicil Admitted to Probate.

On this day come William Ullmann and Lee Ullmann of Springfield, Mo. and produce to the Court an instrument in writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Ludwig Ullmann, deceased, and attested by William Widbin and Arch A. Johnson as witnesses and also an instrument in writing purporting to be a Codicil hereto and attested by T. B. Holland William Widbin as witnesses. And to said William Ullmann and Lee Ullmann pray that said instruments in writing be proved and admitted to record as the last will and testament and Codicil hereto of the said Ludwig Ullmann. And it being shown to the Court by satisfactory evidence that said Ludwig Ullmann late of the County of Greene died on or about the 30th day of June, 1910, at Springfield, Mo. the Court proceeded to hear the proof of the execution and publication of said instruments as his last Will and Codicil hereto.

And thereupon come William Widbin and Arch A. Johnson the said attesting witnesses to the Will of said deceased, who being first duly sworn, say respectively that they were well acquainted with Ludwig Ullmann late of Greene County deceased, in his life time, and the said instrument so produced by said William Ullmann and Lee Ullmann purporting to be last will of said Ludwig Ullmann being here shown to him, they each further sayd that they were present at the execution of said Will and saw the said Ludwig Ullmann sign it on the day of the date hereof, and heard said Ludwig Ullmann say then and there that said instrument was his Last Will and testament; that they subscribed their names as witnesses hereto at the request of the said Ludwig Ullmann in his presence and in the presence of each other, and that the said Ludwig Ullmann was then of sound and disposing mind and memory of full age and not under any restraint and was competent to make a will. That the testimony of said witnesses was reduced to writing by the Judge and signed by them respectively.

And come also William Widbin and T. B. Holland the said attesting witnesses to the Codicil hereto, who being first duly sworn, say respectively, that they were well acquainted with Ludwig Ullmann late of Greene County, in his life time, and the said instrument so produced by said William Ullmann and Lee Ullmann purporting to be a codicil to the last will of said Ludwig Ullmann being here shown to them, they each further say that they were present at the execution of said Codicil and saw the said Ludwig Ullmann sign it on the day of the date thereof, and heard said Ludwig Ullmann say there and here that said instrument was a Codicil to his last Will and Testament; that they subscribed their names as Witnesses thereto at the request of the said Ludwig Ullmann in his presence and in the presence of each other, and that the said Ludwig Ullmann was then of sound and disposing mind and memory of full age and not under restraint and was competent to make a Codicil, That the testimony of said witnesses was reduced to writing by the Judge and signed by them respectively.

And now the Court being sufficiently advised by the evidence of the witnesses to the Will, the said Arch A. Johnson and William Widbin, of the proper and legal execution of said will.

It is ordered and adjudged by the Court, that said instrument in Writing be considered proven, and the same is established and adjudged to be the last Will and Testament of the said Ludwig Ullmann late of said County, deceased, and that it be admitted to record as such.

And the Court being also sufficiently advised by the evidence of the Witnesses to the Codicil, the said T. B. Holland William Widbin, of the proper and legal execution of said Codicil.

It is ordered and adjudged by the Court, that said Codicil be considered proven and the same is established and adjudged to be a codicil to the last Will and testament of the said Ludwig Ullmann late of said County, deceased, and that it be admitted to record as such.

It appearing to the Court that William Ullmann and Lee Ullmann, sons of said deceased, are by the terms of his said will made executors thereof without bond, it is ordered that letters testamentary issue to them and out of and under the seal of this Court, and that they give notice of their appointment as required by law.
