In the Probate Court
of Schuyler county
Missouri

Hearing as to advisability of issuing marriage license

Now on this 13th day of September, 1932 the same being one of the regular days of the September term of the Probate Court of Schuyler county Missouri come Floyd Randall of the age of eighteen and Melvina Goodwin of the age of fourteen years and also come the parents of the said Floyd Randall and Melvina Goodwin and show the court that the said parents are willing and consent to the marriage of the said Floyd Randall and Melvina Goodwin and from further evidence adduced by the said parties the court is of the opinion that good cause has been shown and that good cause does exist for the marriage of the said Floyd Randall and Melvina Goodwin and that such unusual conditions exist as to make such marriage advisable.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged, and decreed that a marriage license be issued to the above stated parties.

Zach Briant

I hereby certify that the above is a true and correct copy of the record of the Probate Court of Schuyler county, Missouri as appears of Page 13 of the Probate Record number 216.
