Now on this 13th day of June, 1935, same being one of the regular term days of the June Term of the Probate Court of Schuyler county, Missouri come Grace Goff of the age of 14 and Melvin Goode of the age of 19 and petition the court for an order authorizing the Recorder of Schuyler county to issue them a marriage license under the provisions of section 2983 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri for 1929 and the court after examining under oath G. L. Goff, the father of the said Grace Goff, and Amos Goode, the father of the said Melvin Goode together with the parties hereto, the court finds after considering all the evidence adduced herein that good cause has been shown why said parties should be granted a license to marry and the court further finds that such unusual conditions exist as to make said marriage advisable, it is therefore by the court ordered that said Recorder of Schuyler county be authorized and directed and the said Recorder is hereby authorized and directed to issue to said Grace Goff and Melvin Goode a license to marry.
